Section I.c Enrollment

Provide the number of students in the teacher preparation program in the following categories. Note that you must report on the number of students by ethnicity and race separately. Individuals who are non-Hispanic/Latino will be reported in one of the race categories. Also note that individuals can belong to one or more racial groups, so the sum of the members of each racial category may not necessarily add up to the total number of students enrolled.

For the purpose of Title II reporting, an enrolled student is defined as a student who has been admitted to a teacher preparation program, but who has not completed the program during the academic year being reported. An individual who completed the program during the academic year being reported is counted as a program completer and not an enrolled student.

Additional guidance on reporting race and ethnicity data.

Total number of students enrolled in 2012-13:	198
Unduplicated number of males enrolled in 2012-13:	30
Unduplicated number of females enrolled in 2012-13:	168

Section I.d Supervised Clinical Experience

Provide the following information about supervised clinical experience in 2012-13.

Average number of clock hours of supervised clinical experience required prior to student teaching	100
Average number of clock hours required for student teaching	400
Average number of clock hours required for mentoring/induction support	0
Number of full-time equivalent faculty supervising clinical experience during this academic year	23
Number of adjunct faculty supervising clinical experience during this academic year (IHE and PreK-12 staff)	105
Number of students in supervised clinical experience during this academic year	137

Please provide any additional information about or descriptions of the supervised clinical experiences:

Full-time equivalent adjunct faculty include field specialists, cooperating teachers and supervisors. Students have school-based support in all field-based experiences.

Inclusion of PreK-12 staff in this accounting significantly increases the number of people who supervise our students' experiences.

Section I.e Teachers Prepared by Subject Area

Please provide the number of teachers prepared by subject area for academic year 2012-13. For the purposes of this section, number prepared means the number of program completers. "Subject area" refers to the subject area(s) an individual has been prepared to teach. An individual can be counted in more than one subject area. If no individuals were prepared in a particular subject area, please leave that cell blank. (5205(b)(1)(H))

Section I.f Program Completers

Provide the total number of teacher preparation program completers in each of the following academic years:

2012-13: 132

2011-12: 162

2010-11: 299

Section II Annual Goals - Mathematics

Each institution of higher education (IHE) that conducts a traditional teacher preparation program (including programs that offer any ongoing professional development programs) or alternative route to state credential program, and that enrolls students receiving Federal assistance under this Act, shall set annual quantifiable goals for increasing the number of prospective teachers trained in teacher shortage areas designated by the Secretary or by the state educational agency, including mathematics, science, special education, and instruction of limited English proficient students. (§205(a)(1)(A)(ii), §206(a))

Information about teacher shortage areas can be found at <http://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ope/pol/tsa.html>.

Please provide the information below about your program's goals to increase the number of prospective teachers in mathematics in each of three academic years.

Academic year 2012-13

Did your program prepare teachers in mathematics in 2012-13?

Yes

How many prospective teachers did your program plan to add in mathematics in 2012-13?

11

Did your program meet the goal for prospective teachers set in mathematics in 2012-13?

No

Description of strategies used to achieve goal, if applicable:

applied for a grant -- which would fund participants

Description of steps to improve performance in meeting goal or lessons learned in meeting goal, if applicable:

Provide any additional comments, exceptions and explanations below:

Academic year 2013-14

Is your program preparing teachers in mathematics in 2013-14?

Yes

How many prospective teachers did your program plan to add in mathematics in 2013-14?

12

Provide any additional comments, exceptions and explanations below:

Academic year 2014-15

Will your program prepare teachers in mathematics in 2014-15?

Yes

How many prospective teachers does your program plan to add in mathematics in 2014-15?

Provide any additional comments, exceptions and explanations below:

We are prepared to meet this need, when applicants have the funds to support their education.

Section II Annual Goals - Science

Each institution of higher education (IHE) that conducts a traditional teacher preparation program (including programs that offer any ongoing professional development programs) or alternative route to state credential program, and that enrolls students receiving Federal assistance under this Act, shall set annual quantifiable goals for increasing the number of prospective teachers trained in teacher shortage areas designated by the Secretary or by the state educational agency, including mathematics, science, special education, and instruction of limited English proficient students. (§205(a)(1)(A)(ii), §206(a))

Information about teacher shortage areas can be found at <http://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ope/pol/tsa.html>.

Please provide the information below about your program's goals to increase the number of prospective teachers in science in each of three academic years.

Academic year 2014-15

Will your program prepare teachers in science in 2014-15?

Yes

How many prospective teachers does your program plan to add in science in 2014-15?

Provide any additional comments, exceptions and explanations below:

Enrollment in our programs is dependent on tuition which frequently is a barrier to applicants. We seek funds to reimburse or support our enrollees.

Section II Annual Goals - Special Education

Each institution of higher education (IHE) that conducts a traditional teacher preparation program (including programs that offer any ongoing professional development programs) or alternative route to state credential program, and that enrolls students receiving Federal assistance under this Act, shall set annual quantifiable goals for increasing the number of prospective teachers trained in teacher shortage areas designated by the Secretary or by the state educational agency, including mathematics, science, special education, and instruction of limited English proficient students. (§205(a)(1)(A)(ii), §206(a))

Information about teacher shortage areas can be found at <http://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ope/pol/tsa.html>.

Please provide the information below about your program's goals to increase the number of prospective teachers in special education in each of three academic years.

Academic year 2012-13

Did your program prepare teachers in special education in 2012-13?

Yes

How many prospective teachers did your program plan to add in special education in 2012-13?

45

Did your program meet the goal for prospective teachers set in special education in 2012-13?

Yes

Description of strategies used to achieve goal, if applicable:

we provide several dual programs leading to certification as both a special educator and a subject area specialist or a grade-level specialist (childhood special education; early childhood special education.

Description of steps to improve performance in meeting goal or lessons learned in meeting goal, if applicable:

Provide any additional comments, exceptions and explanations below:

We increased the number of full-time faculty leading the program. We also created many dual programs (e.g.: Early Childhood Special Education, adolescent Generalist). Obtained TRIP residency, Race to the Top grant funded program. Teach for American partnership.

Academic year 2013-14

Is your program preparing teachers in special education in 2013-14?

Yes

How many prospective teachers did your program plan to add in special education in 2013-14?

70

Provide any additional comments, exceptions and explanations below:

creating new degree program and an advanced certificate program.

Academic year 2014-15

Will your program prepare teachers in special education in 2014-15?

Yes

How many prospective teachers does your program plan to add in special education in 2014-15?

75

Provide any additional comments, exceptions and explanations below:

Enrollment in our programs is influenced by access to tuition awards. We seek to support applicants in their quest for teaching certification, particularly in special education.

Section II Annual Goals - Instruction of Limited English Proficient Students

Each institution of higher education (IHE) that conducts a traditional teacher preparation program (including programs that offer any ongoing professional development programs) or alternative route to state credential program, and that enrolls students receiving Federal assistance under this Act, shall set annual quantifiable goals for increasing the number of prospective teachers trained in teacher shortage areas designated by the Secretary or by the state educational agency, including mathematics, science, special education, and instruction of limited English proficient students. ## Section II Assurances

Please certify that your institution is in compliance with the following assurances. (§205(a)(1)(A)(iii), §206(b)) Note: Be prepared to provide documentation and evidence for your responses, when requested, to support the following assurances.

Preparation responds to the identified needs of the local educational agencies or States where the program completers are likely to teach, based on past hiring and recruitment trends.

Yes

Preparation is closely linked with the needs of schools and the instructional decisions new teachers face in the classroom.

Yes

Prospective special education teachers are prepared in core academic subjects and to instruct in core academic subjects.

Yes

Prospective general education teachers are prepared to provide instruction to students with disabilities.

Yes

Prospective general education teachers are prepared to provide instruction to limited English proficient students.

Yes

Prospective general education teachers are prepared to provide instruction to students from low-income families.

Yes

Prospective teachers are prepared to effectively teach in urban and rural schools, as applicable.

Yes

Describe your institution's most successful strategies in meeting the assurances listed above:

The programs of the Division of Curriculum and Teaching educate and challenge teachers, at the initial and advanced levels, who are committed to personal and academic excellence. The programs are designed to develop teachers' knowledge, understanding and skills to enable them to be successful, reflective practitioners. All of our programs emphasize concern for students' language and culture and respect the multiple voices of the urban classroom. We encourage teachers to collaborate with other teachers, administrators, students, parents and community members in strengthening curriculum and learning environments, including the integration of technology as appropriate.

Section IV Low-Performing

Provide the following information about the approval or accreditation of your teacher preparation program.

Is your teacher preparation program currently approved or accredited?

Yes

If yes, please specify the organization(s) that approved or accredited your program:

NCATE

Is your teacher preparation program currently under a designation as "low-performing" by the state (as per section 207(a) of the HEA of 2008)?

No

Section V Use of Technology

Provide the following information about the use of technology in your teacher preparation program. Please note that choosing 'yes' indicates that your teacher preparation program would be able to provide evidence upon request.

Does your program prepare teachers to:

- integrate technology effectively into curricula and instruction
Yes
- use technology effectively to collect data to improve teaching and learning
Yes
- use technology effectively to manage data to improve teaching and learning
Yes
- use technology effectively to analyze data to improve teaching and learning
Yes

Provide a description of the evidence that your program uses to show that it prepares teachers to integrate technology effectively into curricula and instruction, and to use technology effectively to collect, manage, and analyze data in order to improve teaching and learning for the purpose of increasing student academic achievement. Include a description of the evidence your program uses to show that it prepares teachers to use the principles of universal design for learning, as applicable. Include planning activities and a timeline if any of the four elements listed above are not currently in place.

As part of the programmatic portfolio requirement candidates provide evidence of their ability to integrate technological expertise in their teaching. Within each candidate's portfolio, for example, candidates are required to utilize the Internet in preparation of lesson plans, securing materials for lessons, making technologically enhanced presentation in classes, and utilizing the online repository (Tk20) for submitting course materials and evaluations.

Technology instruction is infused in most of the courses in the programs. Candidates become adept at utilizing/integrating a variety of technology tools for instruction and learning. Recognizing the importance of media literacy in the 21st Century, Fordham's ITE program includes core courses in media/technology (e.g., CTGE 6260-Media Technology Math/Science; CTGE 6261-Media Literacy Technology). Candidates demonstrate integration of technology in instructional planning while exploring the newer technologies as potential resources for instructor and individual student learning.

Further, the ITE program's exit project, the Professional Portfolio and Teachers' Work Samples are aligned with INTASC standards. Data pointing to candidates' integration of technology in their teaching have been aggregated under the sixth standard ("Communication"). Candidates' utilization of their knowledge of effective verbal, nonverbal, and media communication techniques to foster active inquiry, collaboration, and supportive interaction in the classroom are assessed during the portfolio review.

Section VI Teacher Training

Provide the following information about your teacher preparation program. Please note that choosing 'yes' indicates that your teacher preparation program would be able to provide evidence upon request.

Does your program prepare general education teachers to:

- teach students with disabilities effectively
Yes
- participate as a member of individualized education program teams
Yes
- teach students who are limited English proficient effectively
Yes

Provide a description of the evidence your program uses to show that it prepares general education teachers to teach students with disabilities effectively, including training related to participation as a member of individualized education program teams, as defined in section 614(d)(1)(B) of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, and to effectively teach students who are limited English proficient. Include planning activities and a timeline if any of the three elements listed above are not currently in place.

The Early Childhood, Childhood and Adolescent Education programs are distinguished by exceptionally strong field experiences and a carefully coordinated sequence of courses progressing from foundations and teaching methods to the development of a professional portfolio. Candidates develop knowledge regarding effective teaching strategies and apply knowledge learned in courses during their field experiences. They are supported by expert faculty, master teachers and field advisers/mentors. The programs are recognized by related professional associations including: the Association of Childhood Education International (ACEI), National Council of Teachers of Mathematics (NCTM), National Council for the Social Studies (NCSS), National Council of Teachers of English (NCTE). Fordham Graduate School of Education is a nationally accredited teacher education institution in New York City.

There are numerous required courses and experiences in the program to prepare our general education candidates to work with students who have limited English proficiency. For example, courses such as CTGE 5247 – Teaching Linguistically and Culturally Diverse Students and CTGE 5534 – Beginning Reading and Writing in Inclusive Classrooms and CTGE 5554 – Reflective Practice and Student Teaching in an Inclusive Classroom are required experiences which enrich the knowledge base of our candidates to prepare them to address the needs of students with limited English proficiencies.

Another aspect of the general education teacher-candidates' knowledge and skill evolves from their supervised practice of working with students with disabilities in required courses such as CTGE 5161- Differentiating Instruction for Children with Diverse Needs and PSGE 5500 – Psychological Factors in Children with Disabilities. Candidates gain the knowledge and skills they need to succeed supported by expert faculty, master teachers, and field advisers/mentors.

Does your program prepare special education teachers to:

- teach students with disabilities effectively
Yes
- participate as a member of individualized education program teams
Yes
- teach students who are limited English proficient effectively
Yes

Provide a description of the evidence your program uses to show that it prepares special education teachers to teach students with disabilities effectively, including training related to participation as a member of individualized education program teams, as defined in section 614(d)(1)(B) of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, and to effectively teach students who are limited English proficient. Include planning activities and a timeline if any of the three elements listed above are not currently in place.

To enable children and adolescents identified with disabilities to reach their personal and academic potential caring teachers who have expertise in learning and development, curriculum content and pedagogy, and the specialized knowledge and skills to adapt learning environments and experiences are essential to meet individual learner's needs. The program in Childhood Special Education for Grades 1-6 prepares such teachers through a rigorous academic program that builds on a foundation of childhood education and psychology, and provides a strong sequence of field experiences. Candidates gain the knowledge and skills they need to succeed supported by expert faculty, master teachers, and field advisers/mentors.

The Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL) programs prepare individuals to effectively teach and assist students in developing proficiency in spoken and written English. TESOL students learn to identify and implement appropriate teaching strategies, design and evaluate curriculum, and become familiar with instructional materials to meet the needs of English language learners. The programs emphasize sound educational practices leading to cognitive and linguistic proficiency in speaking, listening, reading, and writing in English. The programs prepare individuals to work with all age levels: children, adolescents and adults from linguistically and culturally diverse backgrounds. They also prepare candidates to support immigrants succeed in public and non-public schools in the United States and abroad. Also GSE programs include instruction on promoting high achievement for all learners using diverse instructional strategies and resources.

Section VII Contextual Information

Please use this space to provide any additional information that describes your teacher preparation program(s). You may also attach information to this report card. The U.S. Department of Education is especially interested in any evaluation plans or interim or final reports that may be available.

All of Fordham's specialization programs have achieved National Recognition from the relevant specialization organizations in the process of achieving NCATE accreditation. These include the Association of Childhood Education International (ACEI), NAACE, Council for Exceptional Children (CEC), Teachers of English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL), International Reading Association (IRA), National Council of Teachers of English (NCTE), National Council of the Social Studies (NCSS), National Council of Teachers of Mathematics (NCTM), and the National Science Teachers Association (NSTA). The Fordham Graduate School of Education is a nationally accredited teacher education institution in New York City. In a study conducted by Eduventures (2012) 74% of our graduates noted they felt "very well prepared" or "prepared" to integrate technology in their teaching while 68% noted confidence in using assessment strategies to evaluate student learning. Our program graduates excel on the NYSTCE teacher examinations with an annual pass rate of 94% or better.
