FORDHAM UNIVERSITY EXPLANATION OF TRANSCRIPT

Coursework taken at Fordham University commencing with the Fall 1989 term is shown on this transcript (except MC and LT). Students with coursework completed prior to Fall 1989 have a second transcript of their academic record for the earlier period, which does not include the previous grade point average. Credits earned prior to Fall 1989 are reflected in initial statistics.

Beginning with the Fall 1989 term, the undergraduate schools CB (Gabelli School of Business, formerly known as the College of Business Administration), CL (Fordham College at Lincoln Center), FC (Fordham College at Rose Hill), and PC (Fordham School of Professional and Continuing Studies; formerly known as LS-Fordham College of Liberal Studies, IC-Ignatius College, SG-School of General Studies) have adopted the following grading system. In July 2002, Marymount College merged with Fordham University. The undergraduate schools of Marymount College were renamed Marymount College of Fordham University (MC) (formerly known as the Women's College) and Liberal Studies at Tarrytown (LT) (formerly known as Weekend College). Coursework commencing with the Fall 2002 term is shown on this transcript. Students with coursework completed prior to Fall 2002 have a second transcript of their academic record for the earlier period. Credits earned prior to Fall 2002 are reflected in initial statistics. The schools MC and LT adopted the same grading system listed below.

The student education record disclosed on this transcript is maintained and released in accord with Public Law 93-380, Sec. 438, The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act. The policy of Fordham University pertinent to this legislation is available from the Office of Academic Records and in the Student Handbook. As of October 5, 2015, for crimes of violence, including but not limited to sexual violence, defined as crimes that meet the reporting requirements pursuant to the federal Clery Act, a notation will be placed on the transcript of students found responsible after a conduct process. It will be noted that they were "suspended after a finding of responsibility for a code of conduct violation" or "expelled after a finding of responsibility for a code of conduct violation." For a respondent who withdraws from Fordham University while conduct charges are pending and declines to complete the conduct process, a notation will be placed on the transcript that the student "withdrew with conduct charges pending." For more information, see the Policy on Transcript Notations and Appeals in the University Regulations section of the Student Handbook.
