"I signed up for the CRITI TESOL program at Fordham because of the intensive and rigorous layout. Within one year, I can complete my courses and the clinical experience. I started the program earlier this year and now I am almost done! The staff and faculty have been attentive and supportive of my busy working schedule as a teacher. I am so happy I did it at Fordham!"

- Teacher from Rest of State Cohort (2020)

This unique program is supported through a grant Fordham received from the New York State Education Department. NYSED licensed teachers from any public school districts in New York state are welcome to apply to the program!

Tuition rates may increase through the duration of the program, depending on Fordham's Board of Trustees' decisions. Tuition reduction does not apply to University-based fees.*
