Campus Ministry is here to enrich your time at Fordham by engaging your heart and mind and stimulating your spiritual growth. Firmly rooted in the Christian Gospel, the Catholic faith, and our Jesuit, Ignatian identity, we are a community where people of all faith traditions—and those who aren’t quite sure where they fit—will find companions on the journey to spiritual growth.

All are welcome and respected.

Students of all faith traditions and those who are exploring what they believe are welcome and encouraged to participate in all activities. Campus Ministry believes deeply in the value of interreligious dialogue and encourages you to grow in your faith while learning about others. Let us know how we can support you in your faith.

Liturgical Ministry
Serve and pray at Mass with the Fordham community as hospitality ministers, Eucharistic ministers, altar servers, lectors, sacristans, or communication ministers (live radio broadcast and webcast). We provide training so no experience is necessary.

Contact: Kathryn Anderson or John Shea, S.J.

Christian Life Communities
Connect your faith to your daily life in a Fordham CLC. These student-led small groups bring you together with peers for weekly prayer, reflection, and community. Rooted in the pillars of Ignatian spirituality, faith, community, and mission, CLCs engage the questions that captivate you through small groups as well as CLC-wide prayer, service, and social events.

Ignatian Programs
We offer Spiritual Direction, and programs for Ignatian Week, World Youth Day, and Ignatian pilgrimages.

Interfaith Ministries
Deepen and enrich your faith through the Jewish Student Organization, the United Christian Fellowship, the Orthodox Christian Fellowship, and the Muslim Student Association. Engage with other faith traditions through interfaith dialogue and programming with the Interfaith Council. We can help connect you to local houses of worship and assist with transportation.

Pedro Arrupe, S.J., Faith and Justice Community

Retreats
Want to take a day, overnight, or weekend to grow in your relationship with God and fellow students? We offer many different opportunities to do so on retreat. Student leaders facilitate prayer, reflection, small group conversation, and community on all retreats—whether they are at our beautiful House of Prayer in Goshen, New York, or right here on campus. Students of all faiths, experiences, and campuses are welcome.
