Caps and Gowns

Ordering Your Cap and Gown
Caps and gowns for all undergraduates (FCLC, FCRH, Gabelli, and PCS) are provided by the University. If you placed your order online (fordham.edu/capandgown) before the Friday, March 11, deadline, your cap and gown will be available at the Graduate Salute events listed below, but only at the campus selected while ordering. Be sure to bring your receipt or email confirmation along with your student ID card. When picking up your cap and gown, don’t forget to pick up your announcements and update your contact information with Alumni Relations. At the Rose Hill Graduate Salutes, Senior Week tickets will also be available for pickup. Additionally, Rose Hill students may schedule their senior portraits during this time.

Please keep in mind that your student account must be paid in full or appropriate arrangements made before picking up your cap and gown. Also, you must have applied to graduate online through my.fordham.edu or have the permission of your dean.

If you did not preorder your gown online, you may still attend the Graduate Salutes at Lincoln Center and Rose Hill and receive a cap and gown on a first-come, first-served basis. (Extras will not be available at the Westchester distributions.)

Bachelor’s candidates are given keeper gowns and therefore do not return academic attire.

Wearing Your Academic Attire

The gowns and colors of academic dress indicate the graduate's level of academic accomplishment, discipline, and school/university affiliation. We ask for graduates’ cooperation in not modifying academic attire with personal items that may distract from the academic ritual.

The cut of the gown identifies the degree. The bachelor’s gown has pointed sleeves, while the master’s gown has oblong-cut sleeves. The doctoral gown has bell-shaped sleeves typically crossed with bands of velvet.

The length of the hood indicates the level of the degree. The color of the velvet border indicates the field of learning in which the degree was earned and includes white for arts, gold for science, and brown for fine arts. The inner lining of Fordham hoods is maroon, the University’s official color. For the academic procession, graduates carry the hood draped over the left arm with the color that represents the degree clearly visible. Candidates don their hoods after the president has conferred all degrees. The hood should be placed around your neck and shoulders so that the major portion hangs down the back and the velvet is up. The cord in the front of the hood should be fastened to your clothing. The bachelor’s cap is worn with the long point of the shell to the rear and the traditional black tassel to the left.

Caps and gowns may also be worn at the Rose Hill Baccalaureate Mass on Friday, as well as to Encaenia and the Gabelli School of Business Awards Night on Thursday.

For any questions regarding academic attire, contact Steve Clarke from Herff Jones Inc. at thegraduateguy@aol.com or 516-223-2572.
University Commencement

Each candidate who has fulfilled the requirements for a degree is encouraged to participate in the University Commencement. Please note that degree recipients are required to wear academic attire.

Tickets are not required for admission to the Rose Hill campus or to the University Commencement ceremony on Edwards Parade on Saturday, May 21.

Assembly of Candidates

All graduates must be at the appropriate line-up site near Keating, Spellman, Tierney, and O’Hare Halls no later than 9:30 a.m. with their caps and gowns. (See pages 8–9 for your school or college’s location.) Signs will be posted that day to assist you. The Victory Bell sounds at 9:55 a.m., and the academic procession begins immediately thereafter. At that point, please proceed under your faculty marshal’s direction. As the oldest of Fordham’s schools, Fordham College at Rose Hill leads the procession.

Fordham College at Lincoln Center graduates, when you arrive at the line-up area between O’Hare and Tierney Halls, check in and pick up your calling card prior to the start of the academic procession. The card is needed for you to participate in the diploma ceremony, so please do not lose it. Tables will be arranged in alphabetical order.
The University Commencement Ceremony

After everyone has processed in, please rise for the invocation and remain standing throughout the presentation of the colors and playing of the national anthem.

Honorary degrees are then awarded to several candidates who will be announced at a later date. One of the honorary degree candidates will then address the degree candidates and their guests.

Next, the dean of each school in the University presents to the president a scroll containing the listing of names of candidates for degrees. Father McShane then asks all candidates for degrees and all faculty members to stand. After the conferral of degrees, all graduates are to put their hoods over their heads, don their caps, and be seated. One student representative from each school will be hooded by the dean and receive a diploma. The doctoral candidates are then called individually to come forward to receive their diplomas from the president.

Father McShane then congratulates all of the graduates. Following a benediction and the singing of the Alma Mater, all students except FCRH students leave Edwards Parade. Following their faculty marshals, FCLC graduates walk past the Cunniffe Fountain, turn left at Cunniffe House, and proceed directly to their seats on the Walsh Family Library Lawn. Gabelli (bachelor’s candidates) and PCS students turn right out of Edwards Parade. Gabelli graduates follow their faculty marshals to their designated line-up area under the football stadium bleachers. PCS students walk with their faculty marshals to the Rose Hill Commons (Room 234 and 235) on the second floor of the McGinley Center.

Severe Weather

Because we do not have one indoor facility that is large enough to hold all of our graduates and guests, we will hold the University Commencement ceremony outside if at all possible.

Please be aware that if there is just a little rain or periodic showers, the ceremony will likely remain outside. Therefore please plan ahead and carry an umbrella, wear sensible shoes, and bring a sense of humor.

If the University Commencement is moved inside, graduates and guests entering the campus after 8 a.m. will be informed at the entrance. We will also periodically run an announcement from the sound system on Edwards Parade. After 8 a.m., you may call the University at 800-280-7669 for a recorded announcement or check Fordham’s website at fordham.edu.

If a decision is made to conduct all ceremonies indoors, graduates and their guests should report to the following severe weather locations:

Fordham College at Rose Hill
Guests enter the Lombardi Fieldhouse through the side doors along the roadway between the McGinley Center and the Lombardi Fieldhouse; graduates assemble at the upper-level landing by the security desk entrance of the Lombardi Fieldhouse.

Fordham School of Professional and Continuing Studies
Guests report to the McGinley Campus Center Lounge; graduates assemble in the Rose Hill Commons (Rooms 234 and 235) of the McGinley Center.

Fordham College at Lincoln Center
Guests report to the Rose Hill Gymnasium; graduates line up in the area under the football bleachers.

Gabelli School of Business
Guests report to the Martyrs’ Lawn Tent; graduates report to the first floor of Salice and Conley Halls.

The University Commencement ceremony address and honorary degree presentations will be videocast to the locations listed above after the graduates process in to their severe weather locations. Diploma ceremonies for each college or school will begin immediately following the conclusion of the University Commencement ceremony.
Travel Information

The University Commencement brings over 20,000 people to the Rose Hill campus, which makes parking a major challenge. Therefore we strongly encourage the use of public transportation to Rose Hill on May 21. We are fortunate to have the Metro-North Harlem and New Haven line trains literally at our doorstep and recommend you consider the train if traveling from Manhattan, Westchester County, or Connecticut. For detailed schedule information on the Metro-North trains, visit the MTA website at mta.info/mnr.

Parking at Rose Hill

Limited complimentary parking will be available on the Rose Hill campus for Thursday and Friday evenings’ events, as well as on Commencement Day.

Parking will also be available free of charge at G&R Parking Garage (Fordham Plaza) on Commencement Day only. Enter on 189th Street between Washington and Third avenues (one block south of Fordham Road) and walk one block north to the Rose Hill campus through the Third Avenue or Bathgate Avenue entrances. Fordham College at Lincoln Center graduates and guests will find the garage at Fordham Plaza is closer to their diploma ceremony than the campus parking garage.

General Information

First Lady of the Republic of Ghana Nana Lordina Dramani Mahama (above) addressed the Class of 2015. The 2016 University Commencement speaker will be announced on the Fordham website in the spring.

Alcoholic Beverages
Please do not bring beverages, alcoholic or otherwise, to the procession area, to Edwards Parade, or to the diploma ceremonies. Graduates found with beverages in their possession will be asked by faculty marshals to leave. To avoid any awkward situations, please inform your guests that alcohol is not allowed at the University Commencement or the diploma ceremonies.

Announcements
Each degree candidate receives five announcements when picking up his or her cap and gown in April. These announcements do not have to be presented for admission to the campus.

Personalized announcements may be purchased through Herff Jones (herffjones.com/college/fordham), Jostens (jostens.com), or at the Graduate Salutes in April.
Bookstore
The hours of the Fordham Bookstore, located in O’Hare Hall (next to the parking garage), are 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Commencement Day. Bookstore items will also be available at the main campus entrance off Southern (Kazimiroff) Boulevard.

Cell Phones
Please turn off the sound on all cell phones during the procession and the ceremony as a courtesy to guests and graduates.

Diploma Frames
Diploma frames are available in the Fordham Bookstore or from Herff Jones (herffjones.com/college/fordham).

Emergency Services
In the event of an emergency requiring medical treatment, seek the assistance of uniformed security personnel who will contact emergency medical teams. In addition, registered nurses are on duty at the Health Center located in the basement of O’Hare Hall from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Commencement Day. (See map on page 8.)

Food Service
Food service is available in the McGinley Center from 7:30 a.m. until after the diploma ceremonies. Food and drinks are available at several other locations on campus as indicated in the University Commencement program.
Gifts and Messages
Because of the impossibility of delivery, the University cannot accept flowers, greetings, gifts, or telephone messages intended for graduates on Commencement Day.

Photos and Videotaping
The best opportunities for individual photos are at the diploma ceremonies, not the University Commencement. There is ample opportunity to take individual photos at the diploma ceremonies. In addition, there will be a professional photographer from Island Photo or Grad Images who will photograph each of the graduates as they receive their diploma from the dean. University policy forbids unauthorized commercial use of photographs or videotapes. At all times, we ask that individuals taking photos or videotaping be considerate of others in the audience.

Restrooms
Many campus buildings are open, and blue signs will direct you to restrooms. Ushers can also direct you to open facilities. Accessible restrooms are located in the McGinley Center, Dealy Hall, Walsh Library, O’Hare Hall, Houlihan Park, and under the Jack Coffey Field bleachers. Portable restrooms are also located between Campbell and Salice Halls.

People with Disabilities
All ceremony locations are accessible, and all accessible restrooms will be clearly marked. There is no designated wheelchair seating at the ceremonies. However, you can pull up your wheelchair to any row at the ceremonies for seating. Please note that Fordham is not able to provide wheelchairs for guests. The University Commencement ceremony will be videocast (rain or shine) in Keating First Auditorium, which is air-conditioned and accessible.

If someone with a physical disability is accompanying your group to the ceremonies, enter the campus through the Main Entrance on Southern (Kazimiroff) Boulevard, across from the New York Botanical Garden. (See map on page 8.) From there, you will be directed to the parking garage where there will be a golf cart tram station. The trams (which can hold a foldable wheelchair) will be running continuously throughout the day to and from the garage and all major ceremony locations. Reservations are not required for the trams, and all members of your party are welcome to ride the trams. People needing special assistance should be dropped off at the tram station while the rest of your group parks. As parking and ceremony seating is on a first-come, first-served basis, we recommend that you plan to arrive early.

Guests who need a sign language interpreter for the University Commencement or one of the diploma ceremonies should make arrangements at least two weeks in advance by contacting the Office of Disability Services at disabilityservices@fordham.edu. Please indicate in the email which ceremonies you will be attending.

If you have additional questions regarding disability needs for Commencement, please contact disabilityservices@fordham.edu.
