Brian Henning (Fordham alumnus, 2003) and David Kovacs (current doctoral candidate) co-edited Being in America: Sixty Years of the Metaphysical Society, now available through Rodopi Press. Kovacs co-wrote the introduction with Henning and wrote biographies for the deceased authors included in each chapter.

*****

This publication is a Fordham notable, for in addition to being edited by a current Fordham doctoral candidate and a Fordham alumnus, it includes an entry by deceased faculty member Norris Clarke, who taught at Fordham until his death in 2008. It also includes contributions by two former members of the Fordham Faculty: Robert Neville and Vincent Colapietro.

Faculty Publications

Faculty Presentations

Giorgio Pini presented “Scotus on Non-Mutual Relations” at a conference in honor of Professor Marilyn McCord Adams at Georgetown University on March 14, 2014.

Gerard Vong gave an invited presentation at the University of Melbourne Philosophy Department Staff Seminar entitled “Chancy Goods and Well-Being Pluralism” on March 27, 2014.

Reed Winegar presented a paper titled 'Distinctness and Spontaneity: Kant and Baumgarten on Intuitive Understanding' at the conference "Alexander Baumgarten's Metaphysics: Sources, Interpretation, and Influence" at LaSalle University in Philadelphia on March 29, 2014.

Brian Johnson presented his database work on Hellenistic philosophy at the NEH Institute for Advanced Topics in the Digital Humanities conference in Boston, MA on March 28, 2014.

Michael Baur presented an invited paper titled “The Identity of the Knower and the Known in Aristotle, Hegel, and Us” at Loyola Marymount University in Los Angeles, CA, on March 21, 2014.

Samir Haddad responded to papers by Penelope Deutscher and Catherine Mills for the panel "The Politics of Reproduction" at the APA Central Division Meeting in Chicago on March 1, 2014.

Jennifer Gosetti-Ferencei gave an invited lecture on March 13, 2014 at Harvard University Department of Germanic Languages and Literatures, entitled 'Imaginative Envisioning: Challenges in Rilke and Kafka.' She was also an invited panelist at the conference on 'Tragedy in German Literature, Art, and Thought' at the Goethe Institut, Boston and Brandeis University from March 12-14, 2014.

Babette Babich was invited to give the David and Anne Ringelheim Ethics Lecture at Florida Atlantic University, Boca Raton, Florida. She delivered "Towards an Ethics of Assistance: Heidegger and Care" on March 29, 2014 and a second talk the following day specifically for the students, "Nietzsche's Greatest Weight: Thinking the The Eternal Return."
Thomas Kiefer presented a paper at the Society for the Advancement of American Philosophy (SAAP) in Denver on March 7, 2014 entitled "William James, Hilary Putnam, and Richard J. Bernstein on the Pragmatic Importance of Temperament and Values."

Ken Bergman (FCRH 2010) was accepted with a full scholarship into the PhD program in Political Science at Johns Hopkins University.

Anne Ozar (2008) was granted tenure and promoted to the rank of associated by Creighton University