Faculty Publications

Michael Baur published “Loneran and Hegel on Some Aspects of Knowing” in the American Catholic Philosophical Quarterly 88.3 (2014): 535-58. He also edited G.W.F. Hegel: Key Concepts (Routledge, 2014) and authored “Introduction” and Chapter Fifteen on “Hegel and Hermeneutics.”

John Drummond reviewed Anthony Steinbock’s Moral Emotions: Reclaiming the Evidence of the Heart for Notre Dame Philosophical Reviews.

Brian Davies published “Aquinas on Teaching and Learning” and reviewed Bernard McGinn’s *Thomas Aquinas’s Summa Theologiae: A Biography* in New Blackfriars 95 (2014).

Faculty Presentations

Babette Babich presented „Körperoptimierung als Phantasie-Projektion der Technik“ for Ringvorlesung at the University of Innsbruck, Austria (November 27, 2014); “Reading Nietzsche’s Genealogy of Morals” for Stony Brook Manhattan, Graduate School (November 24, 2014); “Response to Lorenzo Simpson and Bill Martin on Babette Babich, The Hallelujah Effect” for the SPEP Book Session in New Orleans (October 25, 2014); “Adorno and Media” for the Society for Phenomenology and the Human Sciences in New Orleans (October 2014); and „Nietzsches kritische Theorie“ for the Plenary Address for the Friedrich Nietzsche Gesellschaft in Naumburg, Germany (October 18, 2014).

Michael Baur presented “MacIntyre with or without Metaphysics?” at the Meeting of the International Society for MacIntyrean Enquiry in Washington, DC (October 10, 2014), and “Disrupting Our Own Space: The Modern American University as the Site of Production, Consumption, and Alienation” for the Radical Philosophy Association at Stony Brook, NY (November 7, 2014).

Christopher Cullen, S.J. presented “Community, Religion and Virtue in Modern Liberal Democracies” for the Columbia Faculty Seminar on Catholicism and Modernity at Columbia University (October 21, 2014), “Virgil the Philosopher” for the Society of Ancient Greek Philosophy at Fordham University (October 24, 2014), “Empire in the Political Thought of St. Bonaventure” for the International Medieval Congress at the University of Leeds (July 7-10, 2014), and “Philosophy within the Limits of Religion Alone: Henri de Lubac on Final Causality” for the Dominican Colloquium in Berkeley: Philosophers and Theologians in Conversation, at the Dominican School of Philosophy and Theology in Berkeley, California (July 16-20, 2014).

Jennifer Gosetti-Ferencei gave an invited lecture entitled “Imaginative Envisioning: Challenges in Kafka and Rilke” at Johns Hopkins University.

Joseph Koterski, S.J. presented “Thomas More and the Concept of Detachment” for the annual conference of the Thomas More Society at the University of Dallas (November 8, 2014).
Graduate Student Presentations

Emily Sullivan presented “Understanding from Testimony” for the Central States Philosophical Association at Northwestern University (October 10, 2014).

Jacob Archambault presented “Leibnizian Intelligibility” for the Eighth Annual Conference of the Leibniz Society of North America at the University of South Florida in Tampa, Florida (October 31 – November 3, 2014), and “Consequence and Proportionality in Boethius’ De Topicis Differentiis” for Analogical Reasoning – East and West: Formal Models and Practical Applications at Universität Heidelberg in Heidelberg, Germany (November 24-25, 2014).

Turner Nevitt presented “Annihilation, Re-creation, and Intermittent Existence in Aquinas” at a session sponsored by the Society for Medieval Logic and Metaphysics at the annual meeting of the American Catholic Philosophical Association in Washington, D.C. (October 9-12, 2014).

Emily Sullivan presented “Understanding from Testimony” for the Central States Philosophical Association at Northwestern University (October 10, 2014).

Shane Wilkins will present “Paraphrase Atheism” for the Central Division Meeting of the American Philosophical Association in St. Louis (February, 2015), and “The Infinitely Iterated Labyrinth” for the Long Island Philosophical Society at St. John’s University in Queens, NY (April 18, 2015).

Alumni Publications

Alumni Presentations

Terrence Cuneo presented “The Projectability Challenge to Moral Naturalism” in Krakow, Poland (June, 2014); “The Evolutionary Challenge to Moral Knowledge I” and “The Evolutionary Challenge to Moral Knowledge II” Vrije Universiteit in Amsterdam (August, 2014); and “Is Morality Real?” at the University of Tennessee (October, 2014).

Dylan Futter presented “The Death of Socrates” for the Hoernlé Research Seminar at the University of Witwatersrand in Johannesburg (October 16, 2014); “The Minotaur in the Maze” for the Annual Meeting of the Northern Division of the Classical Association of South Africa (October 4, 2014); “Commentary, Authority, and Care of the Self” for a Research Seminar at the University of Cape Town (September 25, 2014); and “Courage in the Face of Death” as an Invited Lecture for the UCT Philosophical Society (September 23, 2014).

Other Alumni News

Terrence Cuneo was appointed Marsh Professor of Intellectual and Moral Philosophy at the University of Vermont.

Terrence Cuneo and Russ Shafer-Landau (University of Wisconsin Madison) were awarded a $48,000 grant to work on a joint book project defending moral nonnaturalism through the Science Beyond Scientism project, administered by the John Templeton Foundation.

QUESTIONS, COMMENTS, AND SUBMISSIONS MAY BE SENT TO:
SKAMPA@FORDHAM.EDU