Program Agreement

The normal program cost for a three-credit course is $2,700, and a four-credit course is $3,600 (plus course fee where indicated). This includes the $75 application fee, which will be returned if the student is not accepted. Students accepted into the program may withdraw and receive a full tuition refund (minus the registration fee) by notifying the Office of Summer Session via email at summerschool@fordham.edu on or before July 5, 2018. After this date, Pre-College Program participants will follow the Summer Session refund schedule.

I understand and agree that, upon my acceptance, all program tuition and course fees, if any, will be due and payable to Fordham University by June 24, 2018.

I understand and agree that my continuance on the rolls of the University is subject to the disciplinary powers of the University. I understand that there is no guarantee that the courses taken on a nonmatriculated basis will be accepted toward a degree at Fordham University, and further, that acceptance to this program does not imply admission to any school of Fordham University. I understand that if the information that I have provided above is false, this registration will be canceled by the dean.
