175th Annual Commencement 2020

COMMENCEMENT GUIDE FOR UNDERGRADUATES AND GUESTS
MAY 16, 2020
COMMENCEMENT DAY IS APPROACHING QUICKLY.

While it promises to be a wonderful day, your cooperation can make it even better.

Please take a moment to review this booklet. It contains important information about the University Commencement. In particular, please note that only in the event of severe weather will guest tickets be required. If you have questions after reading the booklet, please visit fordham.edu/commencement, email commencement@fordham.edu, call the Office of the University Secretary at 718-817-3010, or contact one of the offices listed on the back cover.

We look forward to seeing you on Saturday, May 16!
Ordering Your Cap and Gown
Caps and gowns for all undergraduates are provided by the University. If you place your order online (fordham.edu/capandgown) before the Friday, March 13 deadline, your cap and gown will be available at the events listed below, but only at the campus selected while ordering. Be sure to bring your email confirmation, along with your student ID card. When picking up your cap and gown, don’t forget to update your contact information with Alumni Relations. Rose Hill students may schedule their senior portraits to be taken at the Rose Hill Graduate Salute on Monday, April 20, or Tuesday, April 21.

Please keep in mind that your student account must be paid in full or appropriate arrangements made before picking up your cap and gown. Also, you must have applied to graduate through my.fordham.edu or have the permission of your dean.

If you did not preorder your gown online, you may still attend the Graduate Salutes at Lincoln Center or Rose Hill and receive a cap and gown on a first-come, first-served basis.

Bachelor’s candidates are given keeper gowns and therefore do not return academic attire.

Wearing Your Academic Attire

The gowns and colors of academic dress indicate the graduate’s level of academic accomplishment, discipline, and school/university affiliation. We ask for graduates’ cooperation in not modifying academic attire with personal items that may distract from the academic ritual.

The cut of the gown identifies the degree. The bachelor’s gown has pointed sleeves, while the master’s gown has oblong-cut sleeves. The doctoral gown has bell-shaped sleeves typically crossed with bands of velvet.

The length of the hood indicates the level of the degree. The color of the velvet border indicates the field of learning in which the degree was earned and includes white for arts, gold for science, and brown for fine arts. The inner lining of Fordham hoods is maroon, the University’s official color. For the academic procession, graduates carry the hood draped over their left arm with the color that represents the degree clearly visible. Candidates don their hoods after the president has conferred all degrees. The hood should be placed around the neck and shoulders so that the major portion hangs down the back and the velvet is up. The bachelor’s cap is worn with the long point of the shell to the rear and the tassel to the left.

Caps and gowns (but not hoods) should also be worn to Encaenia, the Gabelli School of Business Awards for Rose Hill students, the Gabelli School of Business Honors Ceremony for Lincoln Center students, and the Fordham College at Lincoln Center Awards Ceremony on Friday, May 15.

For any questions regarding academic attire, contact Steve Clarke from Herff Jones Inc. at thegraduateguy@aol.com or 516-223-2572.
Each candidate who has fulfilled the requirements for a degree is encouraged to participate in the University Commencement. Please note that degree recipients are required to wear caps and gowns.

Tickets are not required for admission to the Rose Hill campus or to the University Commencement ceremony on Edwards Parade on Saturday, May 16. However, in the event of severe weather, tickets will be required (see pages 8–9).

Assembly of Candidates
All graduates must be at the appropriate line-up site near Keating, Spellman, Tierney, and O’Hare Halls no later than 9:30 a.m. with their caps and gowns. (See pages 10–11 for your school’s or college’s location.) Signs will be posted that day to assist you. The Victory Bell sounds at 9:55 a.m., and the academic procession begins immediately thereafter. Please proceed under your faculty marshal’s direction. As the oldest of Fordham’s schools, Fordham College at Rose Hill leads the procession.

Fordham College at Lincoln Center graduates: When you arrive at the line-up area between O’Hare and Tierney Halls, check in and pick up your calling card prior to the start of the academic procession.

Broadcast
The University Commencement ceremony is broadcast over radio station WFUV (90.7 FM) and at wfuv.org. You may view the University Commencement ceremony and all diploma ceremonies online at fordham.edu/commencement.
The University Commencement Ceremony

When you reach Edwards Parade, please be seated while the procession continues. Remain seated until honored guests and University officials reach Keating Terrace.

After everyone has processed in, please rise for the invocation and remain standing throughout the presentation of the colors and playing of the national anthem.

Honorary degrees are then awarded to several candidates who will be announced at a later date. One of the honorary degree candidates will then address the degree candidates and their guests.

Next, the dean of each school in the University presents to the president a scroll containing the listing of names of candidates for degrees. Father McShane then asks all candidates for degrees and all faculty members to stand. After the conferral of degrees, all graduates are to put their hoods over their heads, don their caps, and be seated. One student representative from each school will be hooded by the dean and receive a diploma. The doctoral candidates are then individually recognized by the president.

Father McShane then congratulates all of the graduates. Following a benediction and the singing of the Alma Mater, all students, except FCRH graduates, leave Edwards Parade.

Gabelli students (bachelor’s candidates) turn right out of Edwards Parade and follow their faculty marshals to their designated line-up area under the football stadium bleachers.

DIPLOMA CEREMONIES

At the conclusion of the University Commencement ceremony, graduates (except for FCRH graduates, who will remain on Edwards Parade) will process to their diploma ceremony locations. Graduates will be called up individually to receive their diplomas at these ceremonies. Graduates, please return immediately to your seat after receiving your diploma. This is a final courtesy to your classmates, and it will speed up the ceremony.

There will be a professional photographer from Island Photography (FCRH, FCLC, and Gabelli) or Grad Images (PCS) who will photograph each of the graduates as they receive their diploma from the dean. Students will receive proofs from the photographer and may order prints directly from the company. To contact the companies directly after Commencement, call Island Photography at 516-767-1234 or Grad Images at 800-261-2576.
Fordham College at Rose Hill
Edwards Parade
Graduates of Fordham College at Rose Hill remain in their seats while the other graduates leave Edwards Parade at the conclusion of the University Commencement ceremony. They will then be directed by faculty marshals to their assigned seats for the diploma ceremony.

Fordham College at Lincoln Center
Walsh Family Library Lawn
Graduates of Fordham College at Lincoln Center will follow their faculty marshals past the Cunniffe Fountain and turn left at Cunniffe House. They will follow the roadway to the Walsh Family Library and take their seats on the lawn. The seats will be labeled by last name in alphabetical order. If you have not picked up your calling card by this time, you can do so by alerting a Commencement volunteer stationed to the left of the podium on the terrace.

Guests should proceed directly to seating on the Walsh Family Library Lawn after the University Commencement ceremony on Edwards Parade.

During the distribution of diplomas, graduates ascend the terrace and hand the calling card to the student volunteer standing next to the podium. Graduates then process across the stage and receive their diploma from Dean Auricchio. After crossing the stage, each graduate has a professional photo taken. Graduates then return to their seats until all diplomas and awards are distributed and the ceremony concludes. At the end of the ceremony, the deans and faculty will remain on the terrace and greet the graduates and their guests.

Jack Coffey Field
Bachelor’s candidates in the Gabelli School of Business will turn right after leaving Edwards Parade and follow the faculty marshals to their designated line-up location under the football stadium bleachers.

Fordham School of Professional and Continuing Studies
Fordham Prep Theatre
Graduates of the Fordham School of Professional and Continuing Studies turn right after leaving Edwards Parade and proceed to the Fordham Prep cafeteria to line up. Faculty marshals will direct you.

Following the University Commencement ceremony on Edwards Parade, guests should proceed directly to seating in the Fordham Prep Theatre.
SEVERE WEATHER

If the University Commencement is moved inside because of severe weather, guest tickets will be required. A decision on the move will be announced the night before the ceremony on Fordham’s website (fordham.edu). You may also call the University at 800-280-7669 for a recorded announcement.

Because we do not have one indoor facility that is large enough to hold all of our graduates and guests, we will hold the University Commencement ceremony outside if at all possible. Please be aware that if there is just a little rain or periodic showers, the ceremony will likely remain outside. Therefore, please plan ahead and carry an umbrella, wear sensible shoes, and bring a sense of humor.

Graduates will be able to claim up to three (3) guest tickets for use in the event of severe weather. Limited additional tickets may be available for some schools. Tickets will be available to be claimed beginning in March. Graduates will be notified by email of the ticket claim process.

If a decision is made to conduct all ceremonies indoors, graduates and their guests (with printed tickets) should report to the severe weather locations listed on page 9.

Alcoholic Beverages
Please do not bring alcoholic beverages to the procession area, to Edwards Parade, or to the diploma ceremonies. Graduates found with alcoholic beverages in their possession will be asked by faculty marshals to leave. To avoid any awkward situations, please inform your guests that alcohol is not allowed at the University Commencement or the diploma ceremonies.

Announcements
In March, each degree candidate will receive a downloadable announcement that can be printed or shared electronically. These announcements do not have to be presented for admission to the campus.

Personalized announcements may be purchased through Herff Jones (herffjones.com/college/fordham), through Jostens (jostens.com), or at the Graduate Salutes in April.

Bookstore
The hours of the Fordham Bookstore, located in O’Hare Hall (next to the parking garage), are 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Commencement Day. Bookstore items will also be available at the Bookstore Annex, near the Metro-North Station entrance to campus.

Cell Phones
Please turn off the sound on all cell phones during the procession and the ceremony as a courtesy to guests and graduates.

Diploma Frames
Diploma frames are available in the Fordham Bookstore or from Herff Jones (herffjones.com/college/fordham).

Emergency Services
In the event of an emergency requiring medical treatment, seek the assistance of uniformed security personnel who will contact emergency medical teams. In addition, registered nurses are on duty at the Health Center located in the basement of O’Hare Hall from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Commencement Day. (See map on page 10.)
Food Service
Food service is available in the McGinley Center from 7:30 a.m. until after the diploma ceremonies. Food and drinks are available at several other locations on campus as indicated in the University Commencement program.

Moving Out of the Residence Halls at Rose Hill
On Commencement Day, cars will not be allowed to drive on the campus roadways or park in front of the residence halls to move students out until all diploma ceremonies have ended at approximately 4 p.m. Due to the large number of pedestrians on campus, we must close the campus to all but essential vehicles before and during all ceremonies.

People with Disabilities
All ceremony locations are accessible, and all accessible restrooms will be clearly marked. There is no designated wheelchair seating at the ceremonies. However, you can pull up your wheelchair to any row at the ceremonies for seating. Please note that Fordham is not able to provide wheelchairs for guests. The University Commencement ceremony will be videocast (rain or shine) in Keating First Auditorium, which is air-conditioned and accessible.

If someone with a physical disability is accompanying your group to the ceremonies, enter the campus through the Main Entrance on Southern (Kazimiroff) Boulevard, across from the New York Botanical Garden. (See map on page 10.) From there, you will be directed to the parking garage where there will be a golf cart tram station. The trams (which can hold a foldable wheelchair) will be running continuously throughout the day to and from the garage and all major ceremony locations. Reservations are not required for the trams, and all members of your party are welcome to ride the trams if space is available. People needing special assistance should be dropped off at the tram station while the rest of your group parks. As parking and ceremony seating is on a first-come, first-served basis, we recommend that you plan to arrive early.

Guests who need a sign language interpreter for the University Commencement or one of the diploma ceremonies should make arrangements at least two weeks in advance by contacting the Office of Disability Services at disabilityservices@fordham.edu. If you have additional questions regarding disability needs for Commencement, please contact disabilityservices@fordham.edu.

Photos and Videotaping
The best opportunities for individual photos are at the diploma ceremonies, not the University Commencement. There is ample opportunity to take individual photos at the diploma ceremonies. In addition, there will be a professional photographer who will photograph each of the graduates as they receive their diploma from the dean. (See page 6 for additional information.) University policy forbids unauthorized commercial use of photographs or videotapes. At all times, we ask that individuals taking photos or videotaping be considerate of others in the audience.

Restrooms
Many campus buildings are open, and blue signs will direct you to restrooms. Ushers can also direct you to open facilities. Accessible restrooms are located in Dealy Hall, Freeman Hall, Hughes Hall, Houlihan Park, under the Jack Coffey Field bleachers, Larkin Hall, the Lombardi Fieldhouse, the McGinley Center, O’Hare Hall, and the Walsh Family Library. Portable restrooms are also located between Campbell and Salice Halls.
