

PROGRAM SCHEDULE

INTRODUCTION

The Dublin Process on Ethics in International Business and Finance

Dr. Domingo Sugranyes Bickel

Chairman of the Centesimus Annus Pro Pontifice (CAPP) Foundation

Dr. Henry Schwalbenberg

Director, The Graduate Program in International Political Economy and Development (IPED)
Fordham University

SPEAKERS

Catholic Social Thought at a Time of Global Turmoil

His Excellency, Archbishop Bernardito Auza

Permanent Observer of the Holy See to the United Nations.

Constructing Alternatives to Promote Human Dignity: Is Common Business Ethics up to the challenge?

The Honorable Lawrence Gonzi

Former Prime Minister of Malta, Member of the Board of the Centesimus Annus Pro Pontifice Foundation

Educating for a New Ethical Compass

The Reverend Joseph M. McShane, S.J.

President of Fordham University

AN ETHICAL COMPASS FOR THE DIGITAL AGE

Thursday, March 15, 2018

4:30-6:30 PM

Tognino Hall, Duane Library
Rose Hill Campus, Fordham University,
Bronx, New York

Sponsored by the Vatican Foundation Centesimus Annus Pro Pontifice and hosted by Fordham's Graduate Program in International Political Economy and Development (IPED). We are grateful for the financial support of the Casamarca Foundation.