Program Details:

Day 1: Thursday, August 23, 2018
Urban plunge participants will spend the first evening learning about each other and some of the socio-economic issues facing communities in New York City.

Day 2: Friday, August 24, 2018
Students will put ideas from Thursday's discussion to work during a day of service and reflection. Groups will work with environmental organizations, shelters, soup kitchens, youth organizations, etc.

Day 3: Saturday, August 25, 2018
Participants will take part in tours and activities that will introduce them to the cultural richness, challenges, and diversity present throughout New York City.

Meals/Transportation/Dress
The cost of meals and transportation is covered in your $200.00 program fee. Dress is casual. Bring comfortable and lightweight clothes. We will be getting dirty, so please bring appropriate clothing and footwear.

Housing
Participants who will be on-campus residents for the Fall 2018 semester will be allowed to move into their assigned residence hall rooms on Thursday, August 23rd. Urban Plunge participants will officially move in for the semester at this time, and should pack accordingly. Commuting students will share rooms with resident students. Commuting students should bring a pillow, sheets, a blanket, towel, and toiletries.

For Parents/Guardians
Families are welcome to escort their students to campus for move-in on August 23 and will be invited to participate in a Commissioning Service which will begin at 2:00 PM on that day. Families will be asked to depart after the Commissioning Service and are welcome to return to campus on Sunday, August 26 during freshman move-in day and for the official Welcome Mass for the Class of 2022.
