Fordham Sports Law Forum
23rd Annual Symposium

Friday, February 22, 2019

8:30 a.m. Check in
9:30 a.m - 3:30 p.m. Program
Skadden Conference Center
(Second Floor)

This event is presented in conjunction with Weil, Gotshal & Manges and the Sports Lawyers Association.
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Time</th>
<th>Event</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>8:30 – 9:30 a.m.</td>
<td>Check in and Coffee</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>9:30-9:40 a.m.</td>
<td>Welcome Remarks&lt;br&gt;Matthew Diller&lt;br&gt;Dean and Paul Fuller Professor of Law, Fordham Law School</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>9:40 – 10:25 a.m.</td>
<td>Morning Keynote Speaker&lt;br&gt;Howie Roseman '00&lt;br&gt;Executive Vice President of Football Operations, Philadelphia Eagles</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>10:25 – 10:40 a.m.</td>
<td>Break</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>10:40 - 11:30 a.m.</td>
<td>Panel 1: Legalization of Sports Betting&lt;br&gt;(1.0 Professional Practice CLE)&lt;br&gt;Christian Genetski&lt;br&gt;Chief Legal Officer, FanDuel Group&lt;br&gt;John Gerba&lt;br&gt;Associate Counsel, National Hockey League Players’ Association&lt;br&gt;Marc Edelman&lt;br&gt;Attorney, Law Office of Marc Edelman; Professor of Law at Zicklin School of Business, Baruch College; Adjunct Professor, Fordham Law School&lt;br&gt;Moderator: Stephen Master, Chief Revenue Officer, SimpleBet &amp; Strategic Advisor for the American Gaming Association's Sports Betting Task Force</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>11:30 - 11:40 a.m.</td>
<td>Break</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>11:40 am - 12:30 p.m.</td>
<td>Panel 2: Team Counsel&lt;br&gt;(1.0 Professional Practice CLE)&lt;br&gt;Kari Cohen&lt;br&gt;Vice President &amp; Deputy General Counsel, BSE Global / Brooklyn Nets&lt;br&gt;Hymie Elhai&lt;br&gt;Senior Vice President, Business Affairs &amp; General Counsel, New York Jets&lt;br&gt;Rich Haddad&lt;br&gt;Senior Vice President, Business Affairs &amp; General Counsel, Palace Sports &amp; Entertainment / Detroit Pistons&lt;br&gt;Zach Klein&lt;br&gt;Deputy General Counsel, New York Islanders&lt;br&gt;Moderator: Mark Conrad, Associate Professor, Gabelli School of Business &amp; Director of the Sports Business Program, Fordham University</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>12:30 – 1:30 p.m.</td>
<td>Lunch Sponsored by Weil</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1:30 - 2:20 p.m.</td>
<td>Panel 3: Growth and Future of eSports&lt;br&gt;(1.0 Professional Practice CLE)&lt;br&gt;David Bialek&lt;br&gt;Co-Founder &amp; CEO, ReKTGlobal&lt;br&gt;Jared Bartie&lt;br&gt;Sports Industry Co-Chair, O’Melveny &amp; Myers&lt;br&gt;Alicia Jessop&lt;br&gt;Assistant Professor, Sport Administration, Pepperdine University&lt;br&gt;Moderator: Chuck Baker, Sports Industry Co-Chair, O’Melveny &amp; Myers</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2:20 – 2:30 p.m.</td>
<td>Break</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2:30 – 3:20 p.m.</td>
<td>Afternoon Keynote Speaker&lt;br&gt;Maureen Hanlon&lt;br&gt;President, Onexim Sports and Entertainment</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3:20 – 3:30 p.m.</td>
<td>Closing Remarks</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Chuck Baker
Sports Industry Co-Chair
O’Melveny & Myers

Charles Baker is Co-Chair of O’Melveny’s Sports Industry Group. Chuck’s corporate practice encompasses mergers and acquisitions, private equity, and venture capital transactions, with a core focus in the sports, media and consumer sectors.

Baker has represented buyers and sellers of sports franchises in the National Football League, National Basketball Association, National Hockey League, Major League Baseball, Major League Soccer and many of the European football leagues. Most recently, Baker represented David Tepper, founder and president of global hedge fund Appaloosa Management, in his acquisition of the NFL’s Carolina Panthers.

Baker has been featured by dozens of national publications and other media outlets as a thought leader in the fields of sports and entertainment law, and is also a frequent public speaker on those topics. Most recently he was profiled as a leading “Dealmaker” in Variety’s 2018 Dealmakers Elite: New York, a feature spotlighting the most important players in the fields of law, finance, representation, and executive leadership.

He has been recognized nationally for sports law in the last six editions of Chambers USA: America’s Leading Lawyers for Business, which has described him as a “very strong practitioner” who is “well connected, incredibly bright and just able to get the deal closed” with “tremendous experience and know-how in the sports space.”

He was also recognized by Law360 in 2015 and 2016 for his stellar M&A and sports law work, and by the Global M&A Network for his work on the sale of the Atlanta Hawks NBA team, naming it the “2015 USA Deal of the Year” at its prestigious M&A Atlas Awards. In 2016, he was featured in Sports Business Journal’s “Power Players: Sports Lawyers & Outside Counsel” 2016 list.

Baker, who holds a JD from Cornell University, is a Distinguished Lecturer at NYU’s Tisch Institute for Sports Management, Media, and Business. He is also a member of the University of Miami School of Law’s Entertainment, Arts, and Sports Law board. Baker also served as a staff associate for former Senator Bill Bradley.

He is active at the board level with the March of Dimes and the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society, and previously with USA Triathlon.

David Bialek
Co-Founder & CEO
ReKTGlobal

David Bialek serves as co-founder and CEO of ReKTGlobal. With over 25 years of experience, he has handled sales and marketing initiatives for some of the world’s largest sports and entertainment properties, including the French Open, National Basketball Association, Major League Baseball, The Breeders’ Cup, numerous stadium and arena sponsorship programs, and high-profile concert tours.

Recently, Dave became enamored of the burgeoning esports and broader gaming industries. A void of “best practices” and business processes in sales and services, led him to the conclusion that he would spend the next 10 years of his professional life devoted to its growth. With the creation of ReKTGlobal, Dave and his partners have created multiple business segments, which service the various stakeholder of the esports ecosystem. In January 2018, ReKT was named as the Agency of Record for State Farm, a top 30 North American marketer.

As a sports and entertainment marketing and media specialist, Dave has spearheaded the creation of multiple advertising platforms in the place-based, streaming media and sports advertising space. Bialek is credited with building two groundbreaking initiatives in collegiate sports. First, he led a sales team to create an advertising network on field goal nets in over 60 NCAA schools. “The Field Goal Net Program” remains Allstate’s tent-pole sports platform after 12 years. Second, he invented the “Basket Profile” position on NCAA and NBA basket stanchions, which is widely considered to be the most impactful signage position in all of sports. State Farm was the program’s initial and primary sponsor and remains as such today. For this latest pursuit, Dave became the recipient of the prestigious Sports Business Journal’s Forty Under 40 award in April 2009.

Prior to RektGlobal, Dave served as Partner at The Legacy Agency (TLA) Sales and Founder and CEO of Skylark Marketing. Skylark merged with TLA Worldwide in September 2014, creating a corporate sales division to complement TLA’s existing talent marketing and representation businesses.

Dave previously served as Director and President of ANC Sports Marketing where he built the marketing group into a leader in team and venue media sales and marketing. While at ANC, the business increased from $15MM in top line revenue to $65MM within a 7-year span. Along with creation of the Profile Basket sign, ANC ideated and developed a digital sign for advertising that is placed at the rear of the basket stanchion, which dramatically expanded the inventory of the NBA league and teams. ANC was sold in 2009 to Palladium Equity Partners for $25M and then again in 2013 to an investor group including a principal of Providence Equity.

Previously, Bialek served as Senior Vice President of sales and marketing for Van Wagner, where, for over four years, he led the sales effort for Dorna USA’s in-game advertising networks and managed the Sports Group’s Media and Sponsorship Sales services.

In the late 1990’s, Dave founded and led sales for an Internet radio platform, eYada.com, which raised $25MM in institutional capital. He has also served as director of sales for The Golf Channel and The Marquee Group, which was acquired by SFX Sports.

Kari Cohen
Vice President & Deputy General Counsel
BSE Global/Brooklyn Nets

Kari Cohen serves as Vice President and Deputy General Counsel for BSE Global. She is responsible for negotiating and drafting a variety of agreements for the Brooklyn Nets, New York Islanders and Barclays Center, in the areas of suite licenses, ticketing, vendors, sponsorship, and programming, including event license agreements with talent such as Barbra Streisand, Paul McCartney, The Rolling Stones, Elton John, Billy Joel, and Beyoncé. In addition to her legal role, Cohen also oversees governmental affairs for the organization and has led the organization’s efforts in securing the rights to move forward with the development of the 61 acres surrounding NYCB Live, known as the Nassau Hub.

Prior to the launching of the Brooklyn Nets brand, Cohen worked tirelessly with the lawyers at the NBA to register the Nets’ various and innovative trademarks. Her prior experience at a large corporate law firm provided her with insight as to how best protect the team’s valuable intellectual property when drafting and negotiating license agreements.

Cohen has also been involved with the negotiation and drafting of several of the Nets coaches’ contracts. She also played a role in Barclays Center developer Forest City Ratner’s procurement of the winning bid to renovate and operate Nassau Veterans Memorial Coliseum by participating in negotiation sessions for the Lease Agreement with the County lawyers.

Cohen was hired in June 2011 as Associate Counsel, was promoted to Counsel for Legal & Business Affairs, and then was promoted to Vice President and Assistant General Counsel before reaching her current title. Prior to BSE Global, Cohen worked at Hughes Hubbard & Reed LLP in its New Media, Entertainment, and Technology practice group. As an associate at HHR, she provided transactional support and counseling to media and technology companies in connection with content and software licensing, syndication, and intellectual property issues.

Cohen graduated with honors from The George Washington University, where she was a member of the Dean’s List, with degrees in Journalism and Political Science. She went on to attend law school at Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law where she was the recipient of the Floersheimer Fellowship as well as senior editor for the Journal of Law and Literature. During law school, Cohen interned at Blue Equity and the NHL General Counsel’s office.

Cohen, who is a member of the Sports Lawyers Association and a Regional Captain on its Outreach Committee, lives on the Upper East Side of Manhattan with her husband Ben, a Partner in the capital markets practice group at Latham & Watkins LLP, and their sons, Russell and Dustin.

Mark Conrad
Associate Professor; Director of the Sports Business Program
Gabelli School of Business; Fordham University

Mark Conrad is Associate Professor of Law and Ethics at Fordham University’s Gabelli School of Business, where he directs its sports business concentration. In addition to teaching sports law, he has also taught courses covering contracts, business organizations, and media law.

Professor Conrad’s books and articles have appeared in academic, legal and general circulation publications. His book “The Business of Sports – Off the Field, In the Office, On the News,” (Routledge/Taylor and Francis, 2017) has been cited in leading journals as one of the most comprehensive texts on the subject. He has also published in numerous academic and non-academic journals on various sports law topics, including governance issues, intellectual property, collegiate and international issues. In addition to his full-time responsibilities at Fordham, Professor Conrad has served as an adjunct professor at Columbia University’s master’s program in Sports Management Program, St. John’s University School of Law and New York Law School. He has lectured at Northwestern University’s campus on Doha, Qatar and has appeared on panels and symposia at Duke University School of Law, the University of Virginia School of Law, as well the law schools of Fordham, Pace, Hofstra, DePaul and Arizona State Universities. He served as president of the Sport and Recreation Law Association from 2014-15 and president of the Alliance for Sport Business from 2016-18. Professor Conrad has been quoted in journals such as the New York Times, Boston Globe, and Chicago Tribune and has appeared on CNN, Bloomberg TV and i24News.
Professor Conrad received his B.A. from City College of New York and his J.D. from New York Law School. After receiving his law degree, he earned an M.S. from Columbia University’s Graduate School of Journalism. He is a member of the New York and District of Columbia bars and resides in New York City.

Marc Edelman
Attorney; Professor of Law; Adjunct Professor
Law Office of Marc Edelman; Zicklin School of Business Baruch College; Fordham Law School

Marc Edelman is a tenured Professor of Law at the Zicklin School of Business, Baruch College, City University of New York, where he specializes in sports law, antitrust law, intellectual property law, and gaming/fantasy sports law. He has published upwards of 45 law review articles, including articles in Arizona Law Review, Boston College Law Review, Cardozo Law Review, Florida Law Review, Fordham Law Review (Online), George Mason Law Review, Indiana Law Journal, Illinois Law Review and Washington & Lee Law Review. He also serves as the Faculty Athletics Representative for Baruch College.

In addition to his full-time role as a law professor, Professor Edelman is the founder of Edelman Law, where he provides legal consulting and expert witness services to businesses in the commercial sports, entertainment and online gaming industries. Some of Professor Edelman’s recent clients include a Major League Baseball team, an international sportsbook, the Arena Football League Players Union, and several online fantasy sports providers.

Professor Edelman is regularly cited by the media on a wide range of topics including how the Sherman Act applies to professional sports leagues, how gaming laws apply to fantasy sports contests, and how both labor laws and antitrust laws apply within the college sports industry.

A magna cum laude graduate of the University of Pennsylvania’s Wharton School and a cum laude graduate of Michigan Law School, Professor Edelman began his professional career by practicing antitrust and sports law with the law firm Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher and Flom LLP. Thereafter, Professor Edelman has practiced both litigation and transactional law in the sports and intellectual property practice groups of Dewey Ballantine LLP.

Since 2010, Professor Edelman has taught Law & Professional Sports at Fordham Law School and has served as a regular speaker at our annual sports law symposium.

Hymie Elhai
Senior Vice President
Business Affairs & General Counsel, New York Jets

Hymie Elhai is in his 18th year with the Jets and third as senior vice president, business affairs and general counsel. Elhai was elevated to this position after three years as the organization’s vice president of business affairs and general counsel. Elhai was hired full-time in 2002 as the manager of legal affairs and business development after beginning his career at the Jets as an intern in the summer of 2000.

In his current capacity, Elhai is responsible for all legal aspects of the team, including sponsorship, licensing, event, new media, production and broadcasting agreements, and all employment related matters. Elhai is also responsible for ensuring compliance with NFL regulations and policies related to corporate sponsorship, licensing and advising on relevant corporate legal issues, for both the team and MetLife Stadium. Additionally, Elhai oversees certain business related functions of the Jets, including Human Resources and Community Relations. He is also involved in the strategic planning for the revenue generating aspects of the organization and MetLife Stadium. In 2016, Hymie was a Sports Business Journal Forty Under 40 honoree.

A graduate of Rutgers Law School and The Johns Hopkins University, where he played football and baseball, Elhai resides in Hoboken, New Jersey.

Christian Genetski
Chief Legal Officer
FanDuel Group

Christian Genetski is the Chief Legal Officer at FanDuel Group, the leading online real-money gaming platform in the U.S. FanDuel Group businesses include the FanDuel Sportsbook, FanDuel and DRAFT fantasy sports businesses, the TVG television network and online horse racing wagering platform, and the Betfair online casino. In his role, Christian oversees all legal, regulatory compliance and government affairs functions at the company, and plays a lead role in managing sports league and team partnerships. Prior to joining FanDuel, Mr. Genetski was the General Counsel of the Electronic Software Association, the U.S. trade group for the video game industry, a partner in AmLaw 50 firms and co-founder of the ZwillGen boutique firm where he focused on internet and technology clients, and a federal prosecutor in the Computer Crime and Intellectual Property Section in the Department of Justice.

John Gerba
Associate Counsel
National Hockey League Players’ Association

Mr. Gerba is Associate Counsel for the National Hockey League Players’ Association. His responsibilities in that role include collective bargaining, administering the collective bargaining agreement with the NHL, representing players in grievances against the NHL or NHL Clubs, as well as advising on other matters that could impact NHL players. Prior to joining the NHLPA, Mr. Gerba practiced at Weil, Gotshal & Manges in New York for over ten years. At Weil, he was a member of the Complex Commercial Litigation Group and the Sports Law practice. Mr. Gerba received his J.D. from Fordham in 2006 and his undergraduate degrees from The College of William and Mary in 2001.

Rich Haddad
Senior Vice President
Business Affairs & General Counsel, Palace Sports & Entertainment / Detroit Pistons

Richard Haddad is Senior Vice President & General Counsel at Palace Sports & Entertainment and the Detroit Pistons. He oversees corporate development, human resources, and legal, business and government affairs for PSE, the Detroit Pistons, and related properties and companies, including the Palace of Auburn Hills, Pistons GT and the Detroit Pistons Foundation. He also counsels and supports 313 Presents and its venues and properties, including Little Caesar’s Arena, the Fox Theatre,
Alicia Jessop is an Assistant Professor at Pepperdine University, Sport Administration, Pepperdine University

Alicia Jessop is an Assistant Professor at Pepperdine University, where she teaches Sport Law and Sport Marketing. Alicia joined the Sport Administration program faculty at Pepperdine University after spending four-years as a member of the faculty at the University of Miami. An attorney licensed to practice in California and Colorado, Alicia’s research focuses primarily on the application of law to matters of athlete and sport consumer welfare. In this regard, Alicia has consulted with the National Basketball Players Association to build a holistic program for NBA players transitioning out of the league. Alicia currently consults with the Alliance of American Football to build a first-of-its-kind player career and education model.

Since 2011, Alicia has been a sport business writer after launching the widely read sport business website, RulingSports.com. Launching RulingSports.com gave Alicia a platform to serve as a highly sought after expert in the media on the issues of sport law and sport business. Alicia’s opinions are frequently included in national print, radio and television broadcasts and she has consulted on several major sport-related news stories.

Alicia currently serves as a sport business contributing writer to The Washington Post, after previously writing for Forbes, CNBC and SI.com. Through her media career, Alicia has been credentialed for events including the Super Bowl, NBA Finals, NBA All-Star Game, Final Four and more.

Presently, Alicia serves on the board of directors of the Sport and Recreation Law Association, the editorial board of the Journal of Legal Aspects of Sport and executive board of NFL player Melvin Gordon’s foundation. She is an Academic Director for Pepperdine University’s Institute for Entertainment, Media, Sports and Culture. Alicia’s research has been published in the Journal for Legal Aspects of Sport and Texas Review of Entertainment and Sports Law (forthcoming) and she has authored a textbook chapter in Introduction to Sport Law (2nd Edition).

Zach Klein
Deputy General Counsel
New York Islanders

Zachary H. Klein is in his third season serving as Deputy General Counsel of the New York Islanders. Zach is responsible for the day-to-day legal affairs of the Islanders and its related entities, including the Bridgeport Sound Tigers (American Hockey League affiliate), Webster Bank Arena in Bridgeport, CT, and two public skating facilities on Long Island – Northwell Health Ice Center (current practice facility) and Iceworks (former practice facility). He advises the Islanders on legal and business issues related to the Islanders’ business operations. Zach is also involved with the efforts to develop a mixed-use entertainment complex at Belmont Park, including a new arena for the Islanders.

Before joining the Islanders in 2016, Zach was an associate at Pannone Lopes Devereaux and West LLC, where he was a member of the firm’s Municipal Infrastructure Team. At PLDW, Zach represented public entities involved in the construction, financing and improvement of all types of public facilities, including water and sewer projects, energy facilities, municipal buildings, recreational facilities and other public projects, with an emphasis on public-private partnerships. In this capacity, Zach represented Nassau County, NY with the Nassau Veterans Memorial Coliseum redevelopment, a $260 million privately financed project, and with keeping the Islanders’ training facility in Nassau County.

During college and law school, Zach worked at Holland & Knight LLP in their State and Local Government Procurement Team, working with the lawyers he would eventually join at PLDW.

In 2015 and 2016, Zach was named a New York Metro Rising Star by Super Lawyers/Thomson Reuters, a distinction that recognizes the top 2.5 percent of New York lawyers under the age of 40 or those in practice for 10 years or less.

Zach earned his J.D., magna cum laude, from Brooklyn Law School, where he was Notes and Comments Editor on the Brooklyn Journal of Corporate, Financial and Commercial Law. He graduated with a B.A. in Politics and Economics from New York University, College of Arts and Science, magna cum laude. Zach is admitted to practice law in New York and New Jersey.
Stephen Master
Chief Revenue Officer; Strategic Advisor
SimpleBet; American Gaming Association’s Sports Betting Task Force

Stephen Master is the Chief Revenue Officer at SimpleBet, an organization focused on creating the world’s simplest, most intuitive betting products, focused on casual fans. The company is also building a system of proprietary machine learning algorithms and technology systems to generate in-house pricing for new, reimagined betting products, with a heavy focus on live betting.

Prior to joining SimpleBet, Stephen spent the last 10 years as the Global Head of Sports for Nielsen, and he is currently on the board of the American Gaming Association, leading their Sports Betting Task Force. Prior to Nielsen, Stephen was VP of Business Development for the NFL. Prior to that, he was VP of Marketing Solutions at Octagon, and prior to that, was VP of International Business Development at the NBA. In addition to his work with SimpleBet and the American Gaming Association, Stephen is a professor of Sports Marketing at NYU Stern.

Howie Roseman
Executive Vice President of Football Operations
Philadelphia Eagles

Howie Roseman, executive vice president of football operations, is in his 19th season with the Philadelphia Eagles. Roseman is an influential voice within the organization and provides valuable perspective pertaining to both football and business decisions that help shape the franchise.

Roseman was named 2017 Executive of the Year by the Pro Football Writers of America for his integral role in constructing the team’s Super Bowl LII-winning roster. In addition, Roseman was voted the 2017 Sporting News NFL Executive of the Year by league executives. During the 2017 offseason, Roseman and the Eagles front office utilized free agency to add key veterans such as LeGarrette Blount, Nick Foles, Alshon Jeffery, Chris Long, Patrick Robinson and Torrey Smith, while also executing trades for veteran defenders Ronald Darby and Tim Jernigan.

The team later traded for running back Jay Ajayi just before the NFL trade deadline in October. Additionally, Roseman infused the roster with talent and youth during April’s NFL Draft, which was held in Philadelphia for the first time since 1961. Roseman’s moves paid dividends when the Eagles captured the first Super Bowl title in franchise history with a 41-33 victory over the New England Patriots.

In addition to 2017’s acquisitions, Roseman has overseen the reshaping of a roster that included two separate trades that allowed the Eagles to move up in the first round of the 2016 NFL draft to select North Dakota State QB Carson Wentz. Eight days prior to the start of the 2016 regular season, Roseman executed another trade that sent QB Sam Bradford to the Minnesota Vikings in exchange for a 2017 first-round pick, which the Eagles used to select Tennessee’s Derek Barnett, and a 2018 fourth-round pick. Prior to the 2016 and 2017 seasons, Roseman continued to solidify the team’s core by retaining key veterans while adding to the team through free agency and the draft.

Prior to being promoted to his current role, Roseman served as the team’s general manager from 2010-14. At the time of his 2010 promotion to general manager, Roseman became the youngest NFL executive to be named to the post in three decades, at just 34 years old. In his first year as general manager, he oversaw a major overhaul of the roster, making it one of the youngest in the NFL. The revamped Eagles squad earned an NFC East division crown in 2010 and then again in 2013. In 2014, the Eagles won ten games with an NFC-high nine Pro Bowl players.

Since hiring Roseman in 2000, the Eagles have earned 11 playoff berths, eight division titles, six NFC Championship appearances, two NFC Championship crowns and trips to Super Bowl XXXIX and Super Bowl LII. In addition to overseeing the team’s roster moves, Roseman is also responsible for establishing the organization’s scouting and personnel department, as well as overseeing the executives who specialize in analytics, sports science, player engagement and NFL compliance.

After relentlessly pursuing jobs in NFL front offices, Roseman finally got his foot in the door as an intern with the Eagles when the team was headquartered at Veterans Stadium.

Roseman was elevated to director of football administration in 2003 and then to vice president of football administration in 2006. In that role, he worked in the personnel department evaluating players around the NFL and for the draft. He also represented the team to the NFL on contract, salary cap and player personnel matters.

In 2007, Roseman was invited to participate in the NFL-Stanford Program for managers at the Stanford Graduate School of Business, a program developed by the NFL to promote development of leaders within the league.

From 2008-09, Roseman served as the team’s vice president of player personnel. In that role, he managed the college scouting staff, organized and ran draft meetings, and scouted the top college prospects around the country.

Roseman is also active in the Philadelphia-area community, contributing to a variety of initiatives involving military and children. He was named Honorary Commander for the Joint Base McGuire-Dix-Lakehurst for his continued efforts with the military. His charitable endeavors have benefited the Alex’s Lemonade Stand Foundation, the Boys & Girls Clubs of America, USA Football, Pop Warner and Cop Wheels. He is also a member of the Governing Body of the Global Sports Management Summit and YPO. In 2018, Roseman was the recipient of the Steinberg-DeNicola Humanitarian Award, an honor presented by the Maxwell Football Club to an NFL representative that has committed themselves to doing good in their community.

Born in Brooklyn, NY, Roseman earned his bachelor's degree from the University of Florida before earning a JD degree from Fordham Law School. Howie and his wife, Mindy, reside in suburban Philadelphia with their four children.
GUEST WI-FI ACCESS

1. Go to Settings>Wi-Fi and select Connect-Fordham-WiFi.
2. Open your web browser and navigate to a frequently refreshed URL, such as CNN.com. You will automatically be directed to the Fordham network welcome page. Select Join as a Guest. (Note: For Apple iOS devices, use only the Safari browser for this process.)
3. Agree to the acceptable use policy. You will be directed to a new website. Click Join Now.
4. Follow the prompts to complete the process, which includes downloading/installing a small configuration file that allows you to connect to our public Wi-Fi network. You may need to enter the password for the device/computer to complete the process.
5. You’ll receive a message confirming that you’ve joined the network. Click Done.

Guest Wi-Fi is available throughout Fordham University’s Lincoln Center campus. While guest access does not expire, on subsequent use with your device/computer, you may be prompted to agree to the acceptable use policy.

For more detailed, device- or computer-specific instructions, visit www.fordham.edu/wireless, pick up a more detailed instruction sheet at the information desk, or call the Fordham Law Helpdesk at 212-636-6786.

CLE CREDIT

CLE credit for the program is approved in accordance with the requirements of the New York State CLE Board for a maximum of 3.0 transitional and non transitional credits, (3.0) Professional Practice.
CLE course materials available at: law.fordham.edu/clematerials