Digital Day 2019

Wednesday, August 21, 2019
Walsh Library O’Hare Special Collections
9:45 AM-4:30 PM

9:00-9:30: Light breakfast

9:45: Introduction to Digital Scholarship at Fordham (Maryanne Kowaleski, Medieval Studies)

10:15: Digital Scholarship Project Showcase
   projects include:
   Bronx Italian American History Initiative (Jacqueline Reich, Communications)
   The Siege of Antioch Project (Douglass Hamilton and Tanner Smoot, History)
   Medieval Londoners (Maryanne Kowaleski)

11:30: Data Curation for Digital Humanities (Tierney Gleason, Digital and Reference Librarian, Walsh Family Library)

12:00: Data Visualization for Digital Humanities (Heather Hill, Instructional Technologist, Fordham IT)

12:30: Lunch provided

1:30: Digital Pedagogy Tools (Shawn Hill, Instructional Technologist, Fordham IT)

2:00: Digital Pedagogy Project Showcase
   projects include:
   Waypoints: Mapping the Camino de Santiago (Christina Bruno, Medieval Studies)
   Moving Saints of the Bronx (Katherina Fostano, Art History and Music)
   Podcasting in the Classroom (Nicholas Paul, History)

3:00-4:00: One-on-one digital scholarship consultations available

Please RSVP by August 19 by visiting our website at https://medievaldigital.ace.fordham.edu/digitalday2019/

Co-sponsored by Fordham University Center for Medieval Studies, and GSAS Preparing Future Faculty

For more information, please email medievals@fordham.edu or call (718) 817 4656