Admission is FREE and open to the age 50+ public—General Seating (No Reservations)

All Lectures are on Wednesdays, 2:30pm to 3:30pm, and will take place at the Lincoln Center Campus at West 60th Street and Columbus Avenue. See individual dates for room locations.

FEBRUARY 26

12th Floor Lounge

Jerome Robbins, By Himself: An Interview with Robbins Biographer Amanda Vaill, as New Revivals of West Side Story Hit the Stage and the Screen

Amanda Vaill, author, Somewhere (2006); editor, Jerome Robbins, By Himself (2019)

Dr. Robert Spiegelman (interviewer)

Adjunct Professor of Sociology, Fordham University

MARCH 4

12th Floor Lounge

Moments That Mattered: How Ordinary Experiences Hold Clues to Lifetime Behaviors, Attitudes, and Choices

Pamela Hull

Author, Say Yes! Flying Solo After Sixty (2016) and Moments That Mattered (2019)

MARCH 11

McMahon Hall

Room 109

Beethoven at 250: Celebrating the Revolutionary Composer Who Led the Way from the Classical Period to the Romantic Style

Kathryn John

Adjunct Instructor, Music History, Fordham University

Special interest in the music of Ludwig van Beethoven

MARCH 25

12th Floor Lounge

The Value and Meaning of an Oath

Joel Cohen, Esq.

Senior Counsel, White Collar Criminal Defense, Stroock & Stroock & Lavan

Adjunct Professor, Fordham University School of Law and Cardozo School of Law

APRIL 1

12th Floor Lounge

THE 11TH ANNUAL BERNARD B. GILLIGAN MEMORIAL LECTURE

Neuroscience and the Personalization of Criminal Law

Deborah W. Denno, Ph.D., J.D.

Arthur A. McGivney Professor of Law

Founding Director, Neuroscience and Law Center

Fordham University School of Law