GO F.A.R!
FAITH ACTION REFLECTION
Through faith, action, and reflection opportunities, you can explore your spirituality or deepen your relationship with God while building meaningful community with others.

UNIVERSITY CHURCH MINISTRIES

LITURGICAL MINISTRY
Enrich our community worship by praying with us and by serving as a Eucharistic minister, lector, altar server, or sacristan, or as a minister of hospitality, environment, or media.

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS AND CONFIRMATION
Interested in becoming Catholic? Catholic but not confirmed? Explore living the Catholic faith.

MUSIC MINISTRY
Are you a singer or musician? Join one of the liturgical choirs at Rose Hill and Lincoln Center.

PEER MINISTRY
Practice what it is to be ‘women and men for others’ by connecting peers to Fordham’s mission and to one another.

SPRITUAL ACCOMPANIMENT
Grow spiritually with a companion: seek direction in prayer or discern life choices. Consult with a trustworthy campus minister in times of anxiety or grief.

CHRISTIAN LIFE COMMUNITIES
Join peer-led groups rooted in Ignatian spirituality to form lasting friendships built on faith, community, and mission.

CAMPUS MINISTRY

PRAY WITH YOUR BODY IN SACRED SPACE. EXPERIENCE THE PRACTICE OF MOVEMENT, WITH REFLECTION, MEDITATION, AND SPIRITUAL EXERCISE.

IGNATIAN INITIATIVES
Deepen your understanding of Fordham’s Ignatian spiritual tradition. Participate in Ignatian Week, join Fordham’s delegation to the Ignatian Family Teach-In for Justice, and take part in Ignatian retreats.

PRAISE & WORSHIP
Participate in student-led adoration, reflection, and music.

LGBTQ+ MINISTRY
Listen to how the Spirit of God works in your life, and build relationships of respect, compassion, and sensitivity with all.

MULTIFAITH AND INTERFAITH SUPPORT
Help build a culture of welcome and understanding among different religious traditions. Participate in activities and events with faith-specific groups including Jewish, Christian, Orthodox Christian, and Muslim student organizations.

PEDRO ARRUPE VOLUNTEERS
Put your faith into action and engage with our NYC community by volunteering with local faith-based service groups.

RETREATS
Take time away with fellow students to rediscover silence, listen to your heart, and discern God’s presence in prayer and reflection. We offer 17 retreats per year. Match your interests with retreats that are right for you.

IGNATIAN INITIATIVES
Deepen your understanding of Fordham’s Ignatian spiritual tradition. Participate in Ignatian Week, join Fordham’s delegation to the Ignatian Family Teach-In for Justice, and take part in Ignatian retreats.
