

“Campus Ministry is a resource for me to take action on the things that I care about. Acting on my faith is very important for me, and Campus Ministry’s programming has provided me with an outlet for doing so.”

— Victoria Cleveland,
Gabelli School of Business, Class of 2018

Pedro Arrupe Volunteers

Put your faith into action by volunteering with local faith-based community service groups.

Contact: Gil Severiano, Carol Gibney, Conor O'Kane

Retreats

Take a break from campus and sign up for a retreat to grow in your relationship with God and fellow students. We offer a wide variety of retreats each year, where student leaders facilitate prayer, reflection, small group conversation, and community. Students of all faiths, experiences, and campuses are welcome.

Contact: Pauline Villapando

Liturgical Ministry

Your help is needed to give life to our campus liturgies. Consider serving and praying at Mass with the Fordham community as an altar server, lector, or sacristan, or as a Eucharistic, hospitality, environment, or media minister.

No experience is necessary.

Contact: Kathryn Anderson Kuo, Erin Hoffman

Music Ministry

Are you a singer or musician? Consider joining one of the choirs at the Rose Hill or Lincoln Center campuses. Musicians are also needed for events held by our Praise and Worship ministry and other programs.

Contact: Robert Minotti, Will Mulligan

"Campus Ministry really helps me to understand how religion and my values are not contradictory. Everyone involved wants to spread a message of loving your neighbor and living for others."

— Emma Quinn,
Fordham College at Lincoln Center, Class of 2020

Ignatian Ministry

Deepen your understanding of Ignatian spirituality, the foundation of Jesuit education. We promote Fordham's Jesuit tradition with reflection, prayer, and events, such as the Ignatian Family Teach In For Justice and Ignatian Week, an annual celebration of Fordham's distinctive identity.

Contact: Erin Hoffman

Christian Life Communities (CLC)

Christian Life Communities are small, student-led faith groups rooted in Ignatian spirituality and built on the three pillars of faith, community, and mission. CLCs are a great way to form lasting friendships, nourish your faith, and live out the Gospel values in your daily life.

Contact: Sister Mary Catherine Redmond, P.B.V.M., Erin Hoffman, Carol Gibney

Multifaith and Interfaith Ministries

Interested in deepening your faith or learning more about other faith traditions? Participate in one of our multifaith ministries, such as the Jewish, Christian, Orthodox Christian, or Muslim student organizations or the Interfaith Council. We offer programming throughout the year, including the Interfaith Retreat. We can also help connect you to local houses of worship and assist with transportation.

Contact: Joan Cavanagh, Conor O'Kane

Peer Ministry and Student Leadership Team

Help coordinate events, hospitality, outreach, community nights, and peer ministry.

Contact: John Gownley, Erin Hoffman, Carol Gibney

Spiritual and Pastoral Ministries

Explore some of the programs designed to enhance your experience of faith, including Spiritual Direction, Praise and Worship, Residence Ministry, Chapel Yoga, Theology UnTapped, and many other speakers, discussions, and social events.

Contact: Carol Gibney, Erin Hoffman, Joan Cavanagh

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA)

Learn more about receiving the sacraments of baptism, communion, and confirmation in the Catholic Church.

Contact: Father Mark Zittle, O.Carm.

“Campus Ministry at Fordham gives me more than just a community of people with similar interests; it gives me a family of supportive and passionate people who care deeply about the world around us. It gives me somewhere to belong and to feel truly loved.”
