During the Day
All visitors should check in at the main campus entrance at W. 60th St. and Columbus Ave. between 9:30 a.m. and 12 p.m. We strongly recommend arriving in time for a 10 or 11 a.m. tour as many activities overlap in the afternoon.

Admission counselors are available to provide directions and answer your individual questions. If you have questions throughout the day, you can find a counselor in the Lowenstein Center lobby. During the fair, admission staff will also be at an Information Desk on the second floor of the Law School building.

Financial aid staff will be available to conduct individual counseling sessions with those who attend the 11 a.m. financial aid presentation. If you have any remaining questions at the end of the presentation, we will provide instructions for reserving an appointment. Usually, all those who want an appointment are able to receive one.

Luggage may be stored and will be attended until 4 p.m. at the Information Desk in the Lowenstein Center Lobby.

Complimentary dining options are available throughout the day. Coffee and pastries will be offered from 9:30 a.m. to 12 p.m. near the escalators on the entry level of the Lowenstein Center. Appetizers, sandwiches, and dessert will be offered from 1 to 2:50 p.m. during the fair on the second floor of the Law School building. As an alternative at any point during the day, visitors can purchase food or drink in the Ram Café (on the Plaza level of the Lowenstein Center) or at other outlets on campus.
Campus tours depart at 10 a.m., 11 a.m., 2 p.m., and 4 p.m. from the Plaza level of the Lowenstein Center. Each tour lasts approximately 50 minutes and includes a walk-through of one residence hall. A member of the Lincoln Center Society, our all-volunteer student ambassador organization, will lead each tour.

A tour of only the residence halls—stopping at both McKeon Hall and McMahon Hall—will begin at 4 p.m., and will depart from the Plaza level of the Lowenstein Center.

Visitors are encouraged to view the student research displays that are set up on the Plaza level and the theatre department’s design and production showcase in Franny’s Space on the entry level of the Lowenstein Center (follow the signs from the escalator).

Get your photo taken with the Fordham Ram mascot from 1 to 2 p.m. on the second floor of the Law School building.

Join the Fordham Ram Scavenger Hunt! First, take a picture of any ram on campus—artwork, doorknobs, sculptures, signs, or other depictions. Then post it on social media using #Fordham4Me. Finally, show our staff at the Information Desk in the Lowenstein Center lobby and receive a Fordham prize while they last!

Before You Go

Fordham publications, such as class profiles and viewbooks, are available at the Information Desk in the Lowenstein Center lobby.

The University bookstore is located on the entry level of the Lowenstein Center and is open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Today’s visitors will receive a 10-percent discount on regularly priced school spirit items.

Mass will be offered at the Church of St. Paul the Apostle (across W. 60th St.) at 5:15 p.m.

Explore New York City! For suggestions or directions, stop by the Information Desk in the Lowenstein Center lobby.
