Ph.D. Bibliography
Greco-Roman World

Unless otherwise indicated, primary sources may be drawn from the Loeb Classical Library. The designation “selections” means that the student is expected to determine specific selections in consultation with the examiner.

Primary

3. Plato: Symposium; Timaeus; Phaedo; Phaedrus

5. Demosthenes, On the Crown

7. Cicero, De Divinatione

8. Horace, Satires

12. Quintilian, Institutio Oratoria (selections)

13. Plutarch: Isis and Osiris; Life of Alexander

14. Epictetus, Discourses
15. Lucian: Alexander the False Prophet; Passing of Peregrinus

17. Pliny, Panegyric

18. Tacitus, Annals (selections)

OR

Suetonius, Lives of the Twelve Caesars

20. Apuleius, Metamorphoses (The Golden Ass)

Secondary

Supplements

Students are expected to read enough of each of the following to become familiar with the corpora, issues, and methods.

Choose sections covering two emperors relevant to student’s interest in Mattingly et al., ed., Coins of the Roman Empire in the British Museum. CJ969 A4

Papyrology: Select Papyri I (Private Documents) and Select Papyri II (Public Documents) in the Loeb Classical Library, esp. Claudius’ “Letter to the Alexandrians” (P.Lond. 1912). PA3611 A9

