If you are currently receiving financial aid or scholarships from Fordham, you must apply for renewal of your aid each year. Please take the following steps by the specified date:

By April 6

- Submit the 2017-18 FAFSA – School Code 002722
  - When available, use the IRS Data Retrieval Tool (DRT) to transfer 2015 federal tax information into your 2017-2018 FAFSA. If you are not eligible to use the DRT or if it is not available, complete your FAFSA by manually inputting the income information found on your 2015 tax return. If you do not have a copy of your tax return, you may visit the IRS website to view and download a summary of your tax return. You can also call 1-800-908-9946, and a transcript will be delivered to your address of record within five to ten days.
  - Sign your FAFSA using your FSA ID
  - Review your Student Aid Report (SAR) for accuracy, make corrections if necessary, make sure Fordham University is listed and review the messages for any items you may need to take action on

- Submit the Enrollment Form included in the Financial Aid Guide
  - School of Professional & Continuing Studies (PCS) or Gabelli School of Business Evening students who wish to receive a financial aid package must submit the Enrollment Form providing their registration plans

- Submit the 2017-18 TAP, Part Time TAP or APTS Application
  - New York State residents who attend Fordham University may be eligible for state assistance. See the Financial Aid Guide for further details

By May 1 and Continuously Thereafter:

- Log in to your Fordham Financial Aid Account
  - Confirm that the Office of Student Financial Services has received your FAFSA and other requested documents
  - Review letters and emails from Student Financial Services requesting additional information
  - Submit all requested information within 1 week of notification through our portal

Students who have completed their applications by April 6 and comply with all requested additional information in a timely manner will be notified via email of award decisions by June 15.
