Speaker: Victor Calise has served city government for over a decade as Commissioner for the Mayor’s Office for People with Disabilities. He sets disability policy, advises the Mayor and city agencies, creates partnerships and initiatives that better the lives of people with disabilities and advocates for the passage of legislation. He is working to make New York City the most accessible city in the world in Transportation, Employment, Education and Access to city services and programs.

This event is made possible by the generous support of the Office of the Provost.
