TITLE OF POSITION/RANK: Post-Doctoral Fellow – International Student Specialization (Gift funded, continuation contingent upon additional funding)

DEPARTMENT: Counseling & Psychological Services

RESPONSIBILITIES:
• Provide direct clinical services, including phone screenings, intake assessments, brief psychotherapy, group therapy, and crisis intervention to a diverse undergraduate and graduate student population.
• Provide consultation and training to faculty, administrators, families and students on the mental and emotional health experiences and needs of international students.
• Research, develop and implement clinical, population based and primary prevention interventions for engaging and supporting international students.
• Liaise and collaborate with departments, committees and student organizations that focus on serving international students.
• Provide clinical supervision to a clinical extern (second semester).
• Participate in CPS training, multidisciplinary and administrative team meetings.
• Administrative duties as assigned.

QUALIFICATIONS:
• Completed doctorate in clinical, counseling or school psychology or related field (ABD candidates may be considered).
• At least one year of experience and demonstrated competency with providing short term treatment, outreach and primary prevention in a university mental health setting.
• Demonstrated interest, experience and competency in working with international students and inter-cultural dynamics.
• Fluency in Mandarin and familiarity with Asian cultures strongly preferred.
• Commitment to providing multicultural counseling and conceptualizing from a psychodynamic framework.
• Ability to work collaboratively with a diverse university community of students, faculty, administrators and families.
• Dedication to learning about, understanding and supporting the care of students and the vocation of student affairs in the context of Fordham University’s Jesuit tradition.

SALARY: Commensurate with experience

START DATE: 1/2/18

Send letter and resume: Dr. Jeffrey Ng, Psy.D.
Director
jeng@fordham.edu

Fordham University is committed to excellence through diversity and welcomes candidates of all backgrounds.
Fordham is an Equal Opportunity Employer.