The 2018 IALC Summer Institute “Think Globally, Act Locally” is a unique language immersion program that takes learning out of the classroom and into the real world. Over three unforgettable weeks, participants sharpen their English language skills in an innovative model combining intensive classwork with topical and exciting excursions and field trips. Participants reinforce their learning with hands-on experience while enjoying the countless perks of living in one of the world’s most dynamic and fascinating capital cities, New York.

Classes at the 2018 IALC Summer Institute strengthen language proficiency and critical thinking skills and provide first-hand exposure to the unique participatory style of American academia. Program participants expand vocabulary, master grammar in context, and build confidence using English every day, all while experiencing what life is like as a student at a top-level American university.

I AM SO GRATEFUL TO THE KIND-HEARTED TEACHERS FOR SUCH A WONDERFUL AND EDUCATIONAL SUMMER INSTITUTE.

YING WANG, NORTHWESTERN POLYTECHNICAL UNIVERSITY, IALC-SI 2017
Poised at the intersection of modernity and tradition and the meeting point of cultures from all over the world, New York is the ideal language laboratory. Up to eleven guided field trips and excursions put your language skills to work right away. Visit iconic New York sites such as the Metropolitan Museum of Art, Liberty Island, Wall Street, and the United Nations, and get a taste of how it feels to call midtown Manhattan home.
Session 1: People, Culture and Society

At Home in Midtown Manhattan

2018 IALC Summer Institute participants stay in McMahon Hall located at Fordham’s Lincoln Center campus, very near Central Park, Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts, Columbus Circle, and the Hudson River. Dorm rooms are arranged apartment-style, some with shared kitchen facilities. The neighborhood is well-lit and frequented by both visitors and residents, making for a safe and lively environment.

I WILL NEVER STOP WANTING TO EXPLORE MORE OF NEW YORK.
