EXECUTIVE MBA

The Executive MBA is designed for experienced professionals who want to focus their studies on management competencies and leadership development. Program features include a one-week summer course on business and economics in Ireland and a collaborative consulting project for an international client company, with a final presentation on-site in the client’s home country. EMBA students attend class one three-day weekend a month for 22 months.

ALUMNI PERSPECTIVE

CHRIS COLVIN
EMBA ’14
SENIOR OPERATIONS MANAGER, AMAZON

“The program has a great schedule for those who are working full-time; you’re still able to achieve a strong sense of community with your incoming class, at social events, and in international electives and projects.”
THE GABELLI EDGE
The capstone week is the culmination of the EMBA program. It closes out several months of work on an in-depth consulting project for a client company in a country of the class’s choice. Students gain experience in cross-cultural business practices and sharpen their presentation skills abroad. Recent capstone experiences have taken place in: Rio de Janeiro, Brazil; Johannesburg, South Africa; Tokyo, Japan; and Istanbul, Turkey.

BUSINESS WITH PURPOSE
Profit is no longer enough. The global marketplace demands business leaders who can create transformational change, innovating and contributing to the greater good at once.

It’s called business with purpose. It stems from our Jesuit roots, and it’s how we cultivate leaders who have a lasting impact.

STUDENT RESOURCES
In-class opportunities for project leadership
Focus on individual growth and future career planning
A strong EMBA-specific alumni network

GAINING A GLOBAL BUSINESS PERSPECTIVE: GALWAY, IRELAND
EMBA students can choose to spend a week in July at the midpoint of their program traveling with classmates, alumni, and faculty to Galway, Ireland. The week includes meetings with executives from Irish companies and former government leaders as well as visits to cultural and historical sites. Students come away with a keen understanding of the forces shaping business in Ireland—and insight into where they and their firms might discover opportunities.
