

PROFESSIONAL MBA

The Professional MBA is a next-level credential that capitalizes on students' current work experience. It prepares students to have an immediate, measurable impact at a new organization or in a higher role at their current company. In addition to business courses in their chosen focus area, students have the chance to consider broader issues, such as how business can be conducted in a way that can create benefits for all people.

ALUMNI PERSPECTIVE

JEFFREY BEIM
PROFESSIONAL MBA '17

SENIOR PROPERTY MANAGER, KUSHNER REAL ESTATE GROUP

"I was able to leverage all of my professors' theoretical insight and practical examples and apply them to my job responsibilities on a daily basis. I now look at the various functions I perform in greater depth, and I'm able to find connections with other business segments to ultimately help my company perform better."

STUDENT ADVISORY COUNCIL

The Student Advisory Council is the umbrella organization for the Gabelli School's 23 graduate-level clubs and serves as the student government. The group's officers act as informal advisers to the dean and make decisions about how to allocate funds to all of the other student organizations, helping each one to achieve its specific community-development mission.
