From the Office of Residential Life

Welcome to Fordham University’s Office of Residential Life Room Selection for 2018-2019 academic school year. We hope that you will choose to participate in Room Selection and return to the Rose Hill residential community for the 2018-2019 academic year. Current residents who are full-time (12 credits) students matriculated at Rose Hill are guaranteed housing and are permitted to participate in Room Selection. A resident or a group of residents cannot invite a commuter(s) to participate with their housing selection group. Although commuters are not eligible to participate in housing selection, they are encouraged to sign up for available spaces by filling out the commuter wait list / housing request form on our website (www.fordham.edu/ReslifeRH) beginning April 1st.

This guide provides detailed information regarding each step of the Housing Selection Process. There are also detailed instructions on each of the webpages you will access when participating in Room Selection. However, we anticipate that you may still have questions as you proceed through this process. To answer these questions, we have set up these resources:

- Information Sessions:
  - Information Sessions will be occurring throughout the Room Selection process and information will be sent to your Fordham email.

- We’re here to answer your questions: E-mail resliferh@fordham.edu or call 718-817-3080.

New to Housing Selection This Year?

Online Housing Deposits: In order to participate in the Housing Selection Process, you must pay a $200 housing deposit, which will be accepted online. Current residents can pay their deposits by logging on to My.Fordham.edu and selecting “Housing Deposit Payment” on the Student Tab. PLEASE BE SURE TO ONLY SELECT THE FALL 2018 TERM. The deadline for housing deposits is Tuesday, February 13th at 5pm. If you need an extension, please contact resliferh@fordham.edu to notify our office before the deadline. All students who have not been granted an extension but who have paid their deposit after the deadline will go directly into Overflow housing and will placed during the summer months by the Office of Residential Life.

Retention: If you are planning on retaining your room for next year, you must meet the criteria for Retention and follow the rules of the Retention Process. Please read the details regarding the ONLINE Retention Process on page 13-15. Retention will be managed on-line.

ILC Selection: You must still make a Housing Deposit online. Please see pages 14-16 for details. If you have accepted an invitation to participate in an Integrated Learning Community for next year, you will be participating in ILC Room Selection.

Time Slots: An individual timeslot will be given to every resident who pays a deposit and is eligible to participate in the Housing Selection Process. Group leaders selected should be the person within the group that has the best timeslot. See page 17 for details.

Grouping Rules: Only students with the same Graduation Year will be able to form and verify a group together online. If your group members have differing graduation years, your group will need to be approved and verified by the Office of Residential Life. Please see page 17-21 for details.

Please carefully read the calendar on pages 7-8 to note dates and deadlines for the Housing Selection Process.

Best of luck with housing selection! We hope to see you back in the Residential Life community in 2018-2019. Please contact the Office of Residential Life with any questions or concerns. Don’t forget your housing deposit is due by Tuesday, February 13, 2018 at 5pm!

If you have any questions about housing related to your gender identification, please email jliss2@fordham.edu or resliferh@fordham.edu.

Note: THE SYSTEM LIMITS THE NUMBER OF PEOPLE WHO CAN LOG IN AT ANY ONE TIME to ensure that it works properly and does not get overloaded by too many users. If maximum users are logged in when you attempt to log in, you will receive the following error message: "The server is experiencing increased load at the present time, and no more logins are allowed. Please try again in a few minutes."

Please allow some time for users to complete their session and try again.

Sincerely,
Julie Liss, Assistant Director of Residential Life for Housing Operations
Lori Palmer, Housing Operations Specialist
Quick Overview of the Housing Selection Process

Phase 1: Online Housing Deposit (Mandatory)
The first step is to notify the Office of Residential Life that you are interested in living in housing next year. To do this, you must go to My.Fordham.edu and select the Student Tab. Click on “Housing Deposit Payment” and follow the directions to pay your $200 housing deposit. You must submit your $200 housing deposit by Tuesday, February 13th at 5pm in order to participate in Room Selection. If you need an extension or if you have a deposit waiver you want to confirm must email reslife@fordham.edu by February 12th at 5pm. Students who do not pay their deposit by the deadline will go directly into Overflow and will be placed during the summer months by The Office of Residential Life.

Phase 2: Housing Application
The second step of Room Selection occurs February 15th at 10am until February 21st at 5PM. Students must log onto My.Fordham.edu and select the Student Tab. Student should then click on the Housing Application and confirm all of their information and answer questions about their living preferences.

Retention (Optional)
This step is only available to upperclassmen. If you and your roommates want to live in the same room next year, you are eligible to retain this room/suite/apartment if more than 50% of the current occupants are willing to retain, (i.e., 4 in a 7, 4 in a 6, 3 in a 5, 3 in a 4, or 2 in a 3) and you can fill all spaces within the apartment. For example, if some of the occupants do not wish to retain, but over 50% still do, you must find new roommates to fill the remaining spaces. Double rooms require both students in order to retain the room. You cannot retain a room if you do not have the total number of eligible student to fill the room or apartment. Retention groups must be submitted via the housing application at My.Fordham.edu starting February 26st at 10am and are due March 1st at 5pm.

Integrated Learning Community Room Selection (Optional)
If you are accepted into an Integrated Learning Community, you will be notified on Friday February 23rd around 12pm and will need to accept the invitation by e-mail by February 28th at 5pm. Students participating in the ILC lotteries will receive timeslots, form roommate groups and participate in ILC Room Selection from March 2nd – March 9th. Please visit https://goo.gl/forms/XWQDMa5bc6MGkWIH2 to apply for an Integrated Learning Community.

Medical Process (Optional)
If you believe you need special housing accommodations due to a serious medical condition or physical limitation, you must contact the Office of Residential Life, for a medical form. These forms are due to the University Health Services by February 28th, 2018 to be considered for accommodation. These forms are evaluated by the University Health Services then sent to the Office of Residential Life.

Phase 3: Group Formation
Phase 3 involves creating a group consisting of you and your desired roommates. If you would like to live in a triple, you will need a group of 3, for a double a group of 2 and so on. If you would like a single, you must create a group of 1. Each group will need to select a group leader to create the group. The group leader should be the person with the best timeslot. Only students with the same graduation year will be able to create and verify groups online. If you have a group with mixed graduation years you will need to request group verification. In order to complete Phase 3, Phases 1 & 2 must be complete.

Phase 4: Room Selection
Phase 4 is optional as some students may decide that they would like to go into Post Room Selection instead of picking a room during housing selection, however, most students will participate in Phase 4. Group leaders will be able to use the Room Search Wizard during their time slot to pick a room for their group. Group leader selections are final and cannot be changed. Be sure to talk about where you want to live with your entire group and ensure the group leader is aware of the group decision before room selection. For more information on Phase 4, please see 21-25.

Post Room Selection
Although each resident participating in the Housing Selection Process will be issued a timeslot, every resident will not necessarily have a chance to pick a room. Towards the end of room selection each year, there comes a point where there are no rooms left to choose. Students who are unable to pick a room through Room Selection will go into Post Room Selection along with students who decided not to pick a room through room selection. Students in Post Room Selection are guaranteed housing on the Rose Hill campus. Students in Post Room Selection will be placed in housing throughout July and August by the Office of Residential Life.

Residence Hall Descriptions

Finlay Hall

This residence hall consists primarily of triple bedrooms with a small number of singles and doubles, all with private bathrooms. Most triple rooms are designed with a loft for added space. Some, but not all, double rooms have lofts as well. This hall houses 293 upper-class students. Finlay has an elevator, one study lounge, a common lounge, TV/DVD, and kitchen and laundry facilities. Air conditioning is available for a short time after opening and before the end of the academic year.

O’Hare Hall

This Residential College is a three-wing, five-level complex, made up of 13 “neighborhoods” housing 559 students. The majority of the bedrooms are doubles, and there are a significant number of singles and a few triples. Each double and triple bedroom has a private bathroom and single bedrooms share a private bathroom located between two rooms. 13 community lounges, equipped with living room furniture, kitchenettes and a TV and DVD, 7 quiet study lounges, and 4 seminar rooms are located throughout the residence hall. Air conditioning is available for a short time after opening and before the end of the academic year. O’Hare Hall is home to Wellness Housing, Upperclass SILC, ILC-GB and The West Wing.

Walsh Hall

492 upperclass students live in two and three double bedroom apartments in this 13-story, elevator-equipped residence hall. Each apartment contains a living room/dining room area, bathroom and full kitchen. Walsh Hall also offers a study lounge, social lounge and laundry facilities.

Campbell Hall and Salice-Conley Hall

Campbell and Salice-Conley halls offer a number of different types of living arrangements: apartments are designed to house 4 students (either in 4 single or 2 double rooms), 5 students (in 5 single rooms), or 6 students (in 3 double rooms). The apartments are fully furnished and boast air conditioning, climate control within individual apartments, and kitchens equipped with dishwashers and microwaves. Lounges are available on each floor.

Tierney Hall

The Residential College at Tierney Hall is home to about 150 sophomores, as well as a select group of transfer students. Members of this small community will work closely with six Resident Assistants, a Resident Director, a Master and Mission and Ministry staff to create an intentional experience that focuses on the specific needs of the community. Renovated in 2007, Tierney Hall has a large community kitchen, smart technology lounges, and study nooks throughout the building. Residents will live in double, triple or quad occupancy rooms (all at standard rates) with air conditioning and common bathrooms.

Faber Hall

About 70 upperclass students live on two floors within Faber Hall an elevator-equipped residence hall. Faber Hall was renovated in 2016, and is complete with a community lounge/small kitchen, laundry room, air conditioning and common bathrooms. Most rooms are doubles, with a few design triples and singles at standard rates.
If you are interested in seeing Campbell Hall, Salice Conley Hall, Walsh Hall, Finlay Hall, Tierney Hall or O’Hare Hall please join us for tours. Please see your Fordham email for times and dates.

Off-Campus Living: University-Operated Belmont Community Housing Options

Students at the Rose Hill campus also have the opportunity to experience living in the urban environment of the Belmont (Little Italy) community. Furnished apartments in University-operated buildings off-campus are staffed by a Resident Director and Resident Assistants and are maintained by the University. The Belmont Community Housing program offers similar services and benefits as those offered within the on-campus housing program, coupled with the independence of off-campus living. Students living off-campus, however, are not connected to the University telecommunications systems. Students must contact Verizon and Cablevision directly to set up telephone, internet and cable services to connect to the University network. Only Hughes House has its own laundry facilities, all other options do not. The houses described below are all for upperclassman students:

- Arthur House: Located on Arthur Avenue, this off-campus house accommodates seven students in each of the 9 apartments. Each apartment has a combination of single and double bedrooms, a living/dining area, kitchen, and two full bathrooms.

- Hughes House: Located at 2355-2357 Hughes Avenue, this housing option offers a variety of singles and doubles. Each apartment is furnished and has a full kitchen, living/dining area, and two bathrooms. This residence hall is the only facility in the Belmont Community Housing that has its own laundry and small gym.

- Terra Nova Houses: Located at 2500-2512 Hoffman Avenue, these houses consist of 12 apartments each with seven students in double and single bedrooms. Each apartment has a living/dining area, kitchen, and two full bathrooms.

If you are considering moving to Belmont Community Housing or you just want to see our apartments off-campus, please join us on our Belmont Community Housing Tour, please see your Fordham email for times and dates.

Need to Remain in the Residence Hall During the Winter Break and Spring Break?

Since most of our residence halls close for Winter Break and Spring Break, the Office of Residential Life recommends that residents in need of housing during these breaks consider trying to obtain apartments in Campbell Hall, Salice Conley Hall, or Belmont Community Housing as these buildings remain open for the entirety of Winter Break and Spring Break.

Need a Roommate(s)?

- Attend one of our Roommate Mixers to meet other students looking for roommates!
- Check your Fordham Gmail as the Office of Residential Life offers opportunities to meet new roommates.
- Utilize Roommate Finder, a form for students looking for a new roommate, to add someone to a group, or students looking for a group to join. Updated in real time, with a chat feature!
Steps of the Housing Selection Process
Phase 1: $200 Online Housing Deposit
February 1 – 13, 2018

Step 1: Click on the Student Tab at My.Fordham.edu
Step 2: Select Housing Deposit Payment

- Banner Self-Service
- Student Housing
  - Housing Deposit Payment
  - Student Housing Application

Step 3: Submit a $200 housing deposit payment via this online form and save a copy of the receipt for your records.

Housing Deposit Waivers
Residents who are eligible for deposit waivers due to special scholarship programs must email the Office of Residential Life by February 13th at 5pm stating the office and administrator that is responsible for paying your housing deposit. Please keep in mind that this is the responsibility of the student to inform Residential Life about any housing deposit waivers.

Housing Deposit Extensions
Please do not overlook our February 13th deadline. If you are having difficulty meeting our requirements for Room Selection, please email us at resliferh@fordham.edu prior to the February 13th deadline and we will try to help you. If you overlook our February 13th deadline, you will not be able to participate in the regular room selection with your friend(s) and you will be placed in Overflow Housing.

Overflow Housing
Students in Overflow Housing may lose their housing guarantee and will not be able to select a room through the room selection process. There are usually two (2) reasons that a student would be entered into Overflow housing:

1. Late Deposit Submissions: If you do not submit your $200 Online Housing Deposit by the February 13th deadline, you may lose your guarantee for housing.

2. Freshman Core Programming: If you did not complete your Freshman Core Programming requirement, you will receive email notification and will be entered into overflow housing. You will not be allowed to participate in the active room selection with your friend(s). In addition, no space can be held for you in a particular room or suite. If you wish to return to housing for next year, you still must submit your $200 Online Housing Deposit by the February 13th deadline. You will also need to submit an online submission for Overflow housing; details will be emailed in later April.

You must answer several lifestyle questions in order to move on to the next page. Please answer them as accurately as possible. We will use this information to assign you a new roommate if one of your anticipated roommates withdraws or if you enter the Post Room Selection Process.

Step 5: Meal Plan Selection

For Residence Halls that require meal plans, you will be able to select your meal plan on this page and must click “Save and Continue”

NOTE: this screen will look different to reflect the current meal options for 2018-2019.

Step 5 is the end of Phase 2 and must be completed by February 21, 2018 at 5pm or you will not be able to join a roommate group and select housing in the next phases.
Room Retention
February 26 - March 1, 2018

- This step is only available to upperclassmen. Freshmen students cannot participate in Room Retention.
- If you and your roommates want to live in the same room next year, you are eligible to retain this room if more than 50% of the current occupants are willing to retain, (i.e., 4 in a 7, 4 in a 6, 3 in a 5, 3 in a 4, or 2 in a 3) AND you are able to fill all spaces within the room/suite.
- If some of the occupants do not wish to retain, but over 50% still do, you must find new roommates to fill the remaining spaces.
- Double rooms require both students in order to retain the room.
- You cannot retain a room if you do not have the total number of persons to fill the room or apartment.
- If you do not form a valid and confirmed Retention Group by March 1st at 5pm, you and your group members are no longer eligible to request Room Retention, however you can participate in Room Selection.

The number of occupants necessary to retain is as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Room Type</th>
<th>Building(s)</th>
<th>Minimum Occupants</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Single Rooms</td>
<td>Finlay Hall, O’Hare Hall, Loschert Hall, Alumni Court South, Faber Hall</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Suites/Apartments</td>
<td>Walsh Hall suites, Campbell Hall, and Salice-Conley Hall suites</td>
<td>over 50%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Off Campus Suites/Apartments</td>
<td>TerraNova, Hughes, Arthur 1, and Arthur 2 Apartments</td>
<td>over 50%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Double Rooms</td>
<td>Finlay Hall, Faber Hall, and O’Hare Hall</td>
<td>both occupants</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Triples</td>
<td>Finlay Hall, Faber Hall, and O’Hare Hall</td>
<td>over 50%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

If you live in the following buildings/wings you WILL NOT be able to retain for the Fall 2018 semester:
Queen's Court, Martyrs' Court, Alumni Court South Doubles/Triples, Loschert Hall Doubles/Triples, Tierney Hall, ILC-GB, West Wing ILC, RA Suitemates/Adjoining Rooms, Physically Accessible rooms (unless you receive approval through the Medical Accommodations process).

If a member of the group is falsely included, the retention of the entire suite or room will be invalid and all students will be eliminated from the room selection process.

Creating a Retention Roommate Group:
- Log into the housing application at My.Fordham.edu.
- Select Roommate Group Selection
- 1 CURRENT resident from the room that the group wishes to retain must create a group name and password.
- The Group Name must be the hall and room assignment that you wish to retain. (If you wish to retain Walsh 304, your group name MUST be Walsh 304)
- Give the group name and password to desired group members. The number of members in your group must match the number of spaces in the room/suite you wish to retain.
- If all of the members of your group do not have the same graduation year, all members with the same graduation year as the group leader should join the group. All other members must email resliferh@fordham.edu with the group name and password requesting to be added to the group.
- Group leader must check to make sure ALL of the correct group members are in the group and verify the group; if the group is not verified, it is not yet considered an actual group and will not be eligible for Room Retention.
- If you want to retain a single, create a group of 1 and verify it.

Students Studying Abroad

Students Studying Abroad for the Spring 2018 Semester: Students who are currently studying abroad should be able to participate in the room selection from abroad. If you encounter any difficulties, please email resliferh@fordham.edu.

Students Studying Abroad for the Fall 2018 Semester Returning to Housing for Spring 2019: ORL recommends that students who plan to study abroad for the Fall 2018 semester go through the room selection process in case plans to study abroad change. Once a student confirms that they are studying abroad for Fall 2018, they can withdraw from housing by filling out the withdrawal form at www.fordham.edu/withdrawal. Residential Life will contact you in November of 2018 to discuss your Spring 2019 housing options. Please note that the ORL will not hold any rooms for Spring that were obtained by students who decide to study abroad in Fall.

Internal Transfers

Students planning to academically transfer to the Lincoln Center campus for Fall 2018 and who would like to live in McMahon Hall at Lincoln Center must pay their $200 housing deposit and go through the ROSE HILL housing selection process for 2018-2019 and sign up on the Lincoln Center housing waitlist. If there is space at the Lincoln Center campus for Fall 2018, students who successfully complete an internal transfer to Lincoln Center will be notified throughout the summer months and given a new housing assignment at the Lincoln Center campus.
If a student planning to transfer to Lincoln Center for Fall 2018 does not go through the Rose Hill room selection process, he or she will be considered a commuter student and not given housing at either campus for Fall 2018. Once housing becomes available at Lincoln Center, students who have completed an internal transfer and paid their $200 housing deposit will need to move to the Lincoln Center campus.

Room Selection Time Slots

- An individual timeslot will be emailed to every resident who pays a deposit and is eligible to participate in the Housing Selection Process on March 8th and March 9th.
- Timeslots will be assigned with priority given based on Graduation Year, with seniors/juniors picking first.
- The Group Leader should be the member of the group with the best timeslot. Time slots will not be averaged unless you have group members with mixed graduation years.

Post Room Selection

- Although each resident participating Room Selection will be issued a timeslot, every resident will not necessarily have a chance to pick a room.
- Towards the end of room selection each year, there comes a point where there are no rooms left to choose. Students who are unable to pick a room through Room Selection will go into Post Room Selection along with students who decided not to pick a room through room selection.
- Students in Post Room Selection are guaranteed housing on the Rose Hill campus and will be placed in housing throughout July & August by the Office of Residential Life.
- Although we do our best to honor building and roommate preferences, they are not guaranteed. Please let us know how to best prioritize your requests (Example, is the hall or room style more important than a roommate request).

Why does Post Room Selection happen?

Students in Room Selection pick all the rooms currently available on campus. Then throughout the summer and remaining Spring semester, students withdraw from the University, from Housing or decided to go Abroad for Fall. All of these changes create the vacancies where Post Room Selection students are assigned.

This happens because of the Fordham University housing guarantee to students.

Why does it take until mid-August?

The longer we wait the better chance we have of opening multiple spaces within a room/apartment, thus keeping roommate pairs together. If we assigned as spaces become available throughout the summer, we would need to break up most roommate pairs, and not honor building preferences. A student may withdraw from an apartment in Walsh early in May, and that student’s roommates may wait until July to withdraw. If we assign in July and August, we have a better chance of students getting an apartment together with their desired roommates, rather than having split them up into what spaces were known in May.
Phase 3: Room Selection
Group Formation
Begins: March 12th at 10am

Group Formation

- Students must decide with whom they want to live for next year.
- Based on the number of potential roommates, the roommates should discuss what buildings they are interested in living in for next year.
  - Groups of 1 must select a single room (O’Hare Hall, Loschert Hall, Alumni Court South, Finlay Hall, Faber Hall)
  - Groups of 2 must select a double room (O’Hare Hall, Tierney Hall, Faber Hall, Finlay Hall)
  - Groups of 3 must select a triple room (Finlay Hall, Faber Hall, O’Hare Hall, Tierney Hall)
  - Groups of 4 must select a quad room or apartment (Tierney Hall, Walsh Hall, Campbell Hall, Salice Conley Hall)
  - Groups of 5 must select an apartment for 5 people (Campbell Hall, Salice-Conley Halls, Hughes House)
  - Groups of 6 must select an apartment for 6 people (Walsh, Campbell, Salice-Conley Halls and Hughes House)
  - Groups of 7 must select an apartment for 7 people (Arthur, Hughes, and Terranova Houses)
- Once this is decided, students must assign one person in their group to be their group leader. THE GROUP LEADER SHOULD BE THE PERSON WITH THE BEST TIMESLOT.
- The group leader will have a lot of responsibility through the room selection process (see Role of Group Leader section, page 17).
- Students should discuss several backup plans in the event they are unable to obtain their first choice through the room selection process and be prepared to select a different building choice OR regroup into smaller or larger groups based on what housing options are left for them to choose.
  - Example: A group of 6 should be prepared to shift into 2 groups of 3 and try for triples in Finlay Hall, O’Hare Hall or Tierney Hall if a 6 person apartment is not available once it comes time for their group to pick a room.
  - A group of 2 should be prepared to add a third roommate if there are no doubles left at the time of their room selection in order for them to select a triple room if is available at that time.

The Role of the Group Leader

The group leader should be the member of the group with the best timeslot. The group leader has the following capabilities:
- The only person allowed to create a group.
- The only person allowed to verify the group after it is created and after all group members are added.
- Is allowed to modify the group after it is verified (this is possible so that if the type of room your Group seeks is no longer available prior to your group’s room selection time, your group leader can make changes to the group to obtain a different type of room).
- Only the group leader is allowed to delete the entire group, however, individual members can delete themselves from a group.
Creating a Group (Group Leaders only)

All Group Members have the Same Expected Graduation Year:

➢ The Group Leader must create a group by selecting "create a new group."

Group Leaders click here!

Everyone’s group must have only 1 group leader who will be responsible for verifying your group and picking your room during the group leader’s timeslot. You can only be in 1 group at a time!

Looking for a single?

You still must create a group with 1 member (yourself).

1. Enter group name of your choice.
   (Tip: Administrators can see your group name; choose something that you would not mind saying to a staff member if you need any assistance after this step!)
2. Enter a password.
3. Confirm the password.
4. Click “Save and Continue.”
5. Remember the Group Name and Password.
6. Give the Group Name and Password to the members of your group so they can join the group.
7. Once everyone has joined, the group leader must verify the group prior to room selection.
   Note: Any time a change is made to the group, the group leader must re-verify the group.

As the Group Members add themselves to the group, the Group Leader must verify the group each time there is a change until the group is final and SELECT SAVE AND CONTINUE.

Group Leaders must click here to verify the group each time a change is made!

Don’t forget to select “Save & Continue” at the bottom of this page!

Group members have different Expected Graduation Years:

- Follow group creation steps as listed above in “All group members have the same graduation year.”
- All members of the group with the SAME Expected Graduation Year as the group leader should join the group.
- All members of the group with a DIFFERENT Expected Graduation Year than the group leader must email Residential Life at resliferh@fordham.edu including:
  - First and Last Name
  - Fordham ID Number
  - Name of group you wish to join & group password
- If Residential Life approves the group, an averaged time slot of all group members will be given to the group leader and the group will be verified. Requests should be made at least 24 hours in advance of any change.

Details for Group Leaders Regarding Group Formation

- Do not create a group more than 7 individuals, as that is the size of the largest apartment available. Groups too large for the available space remaining will be notified to break up by ORL. (example: if there are no apartments left, no groups larger than 4 should be created)
- If additional individuals somehow obtain the group name and password and add themselves to the group, remove the individual from the group; they will be notified of removal.
- Check to make sure ALL of the correct group members are in the group and verify the group; if the group is not verified, it is not yet considered an actual group and will not be able to select a room.
- When you do things that impact the group, members should receive an automated email to their Fordham email accounts. Members will know if you remove them from the group.
- When individuals choose to enter a group, they enter with the understanding that the group leader is responsible for making many decisions on behalf of all group members. If individuals are unhappy with decisions made by the group leader, the Office of Residential Life will not be able to change group leader decisions.
- Only the group leader will be able to enter the "Room Search Wizard" to select a room during their timeslot, however, on non-Room Selection Days, all group members can see rooms that are available in the "Browse Available Rooms" page.

Group Members: How to join a group

- Group members must receive the Group Name and password from the Group Leader.
- Group members should select "add yourself to a group" and then enter the group name and password.

Roommate Group Selection

The following tool can be used to create roommate groups for lottery. Each group should select a leader. The group leader has the following capabilities:

- The group leader is the only person allowed to create a group.
- The group leader is the only person allowed to verify the group after it is created and after all group members are added.
- The group leader is allowed to modify the group after it is verified (the group leader can make changes to the group to obtain a different type).
- The group leader is allowed to delete the entire group, however, only the group leader will be able to enter the "Room Search Wizard Available" page that will enable all students to see what rooms are available.

You must have the Group Name and Password from the Group Leader before you can add yourself to a group.
Group Members must enter the group name and password. Group members will be able to see who is in the group as members are verified. You must click Save and Continue at the bottom of this page in order to complete the process of joining a group. Group members should also receive emails to their Fordham email account when the group leader does things that impact the group.

Regrouping Rules

If your group leader cannot find a room to accommodate your entire group, one of four things can happen:

1. Your group leader can assign all members of the group to different rooms ON THE SAME FLOOR OF THE SAME BUILDING. (This option is NOT available to freshmen).
2. ADD people to your group to get a larger room. Your group leader must give your group name and password to a new group member and re-verify the group after s/he has been added to the group. When the new group is verified, the group leader can pick a different room with more beds with the same timeslot.
3. DELETE people from your group to get a smaller room. Your group leader must delete the person, re-verify the group, and assign the people left in the group to a smaller room with the same timeslot. Students who have been deleted from a group should receive a notification to their Fordham email account. The students who are deleted have the following options:
   a. Regroup with other students.
   b. Regroup as a group of 1 and try to get a single.
   c. Enter into Post-Room Selection.
4. Your group leader can delete the entire group. Members of the group should receive a notification to their Fordham email account. Each person from the group has the following options:
   a. Regroup with other students.
   b. Regroup as a group of 1 and try to get a single.
   c. Enter into Post-Room Selection.

How to Regroup:

- The group should select a new group leader whose time has already passed OR who has the BEST timeslot among the new group members. That new group leader should follow the above instructions: "Group Leaders: How groups are created."
- If the group leader's timeslot has already passed, the new group can pick a room immediately. If the group leader's timeslot has not yet passed, the new group must wait for this new timeslot.
