

What to Love About Fordham

Lingo We Love

Plunger: Plungers are students that are new to Fordham and participating in Urban Plunge for the first time.

UPA: Urban Plunge Assistants (UPAs) guide Plungers throughout Urban Plunge. They'll help students navigate campus, answer questions, and make the transition to Fordham a smooth one.

Captain: Student leaders who work on different teams and help make the Urban Plunge experience possible.

Fordham Fun Facts and Traditions

Ride the Ram: One of Fordham's most beloved traditions. Be sure to snap a picture with the iconic Ram statue—it's practically a rite of passage.

A Touch of Celebrity: Before she became a global music icon, Lana Del Rey lived in Queens Court while attending FCRH. Oscar winner Denzel Washington is a proud graduate of FCLC!

Campus Cemetery: Rose Hill is home to a historic cemetery, yet some legends say it's not a real burial site...

What To Look Forward To!

Spring Weekend: One of the most anticipated events of the year! Held each spring around finals season, Spring Weekend features concerts, activities, and campus-wide celebrations that bring the entire Fordham community together.

Midnight Breakfast: Each semester during finals season, the Caf opens its doors one night from 10:00 pm - 12:00 am so studying students can get some late-night food!
