SECTION III: WHERE TO SEND YOUR AFCE, PASSPORT COPY & SUPPORTING FINANCIAL DOCUMENTATION

Where you should send your documentation depends on which school you are admitted to. Most of Fordham's undergraduate and graduate schools (FCRH, FCLC, Gabelli School of Business, GSB, GSAS, and GSE) require that you upload your AFCE and supporting documents to your Applicant Portal. Some Law School programs (LLM and LEI) also require you upload to the Applicant Portal. Students of all other schools (including GSSS, PCS, IALC, and Law School students in the JD program) may send their documents via email to oisnewstudent@fordham.edu. If you have questions about where to send your documents, you may reach out to us directly, or contact the Admissions office of your school using the Information Found below:

SECTION IV: MINIMUM EXPENSES

Please note that the following amounts reflect the cost of tuition, fees, and health insurance for the 2026-2027 academic year. Anticipate that all costs related to study at Fordham University may increase approximately 5% every subsequent year. This increase may not be reflected on the I-20 or DS-2019 you receive and therefore may not match precisely the amounts listed above.

- A. ESTIMATE TUITION AND FEES: The total yearly estimated expense plus any additional dependent expenses is what you must document for issuance of the I-20 or DS-2019. Full payment of tuition and fees are due upon registration for each term, which takes place in August/September for the fall term, and December/January for the spring term.
- B. SCHOLARSHIPS: The OIS does not have any knowledge or resources about scholarships. You should contact your school to find out if there are any scholarships available to you, and you can investigate scholarships provided by organizations in your home country. If you have been awarded a scholarship, you must include supporting documentation.
- C. LIVING EXPENSES: The cost of living in New York City is one of the highest in the United States. You are required to demonstrate a minimum of $3,350 per month. This standard living expense includes rent, food, books, supplies, services fees, transportation, minor medical expenses, entertainment, and clothing. All figures in the "Academic Year Total" column on page 2 are minimum average estimates for living costs for 9 months unless otherwise indicated. The OIS strongly recommends you have at least an additional 25% reserve of your total expenses available. The value of room and board is $2,500/month. If room and board will be provided to you, written verification and supporting documentation must be submitted by the sponsor
- D. MANDATORY HEALTH INSURANCE: Because health care in the US is very important, Fordham requires all F-1 and J-1 students to purchase health insurance. The comprehensive health insurance plan provided by Fordham for the 2026-2027 academic year is $5,232.
- Coverage for the Fall 2026 semester is from August 24, 2026 to December 31, 2026; the premium is $1,890
 - Coverage for the Spring 2027 semester is from January 1, 2027 to August 23, 2027; the premium is $3,342
 - For all questions about Health insurance, please contact health@fordham.edu
- DI. DEPENDENTS. If you plan to bring your dependent spouse and/or dependent children, additional funds must be certified in the amount of $10,000 per year for one spouse and $7,000 per year for one dependent. This does NOT include health insurance, which could cost up to $3,000 for dependents.

SECTION V: AFCOE FACTS AND IMPORTANT INFORMATION

United States law requires that all F-1 and J-1 students be admitted to a full-time academic program, meet English language proficiency requirements, and document sufficient funds to cover educational and personal living expenses. Whether you are coming to Fordham University from outside the United States and therefore will apply for a student visa at a US Consulate or you are already in the US and plan to maintain or obtain F-1 or J-1 status at Fordham, you must have a Fordham-issued form I-20 (for F-1 status) or form DS-2019 (for J-1 status). To obtain one of these forms, submit this Application for Certificate of Eligibility (AFCOE) for F-1 or J-1 Status to the Office for International Services as soon as you have been admitted and you make your decision to attend Fordham University. Before completing this form, it is important that you read and understand the following:

1. AFCOE BASICS. Answer all questions completely on the AFCOE, and print CLEARLY. Submit your completed AFCOE, supporting financial documentation, and identity page of your passport. Enter your name EXACTLY AS IT APPEARS IN YOUR PASSPORT.
2. TRANSFERS. F-1 students already in the United States must submit a Transfer Form to the foreign student advisor at the school from which you are leaving. You may download it from our website, see “International Student Transfer Form”
3. ORIGINAL DOCS. The OIS does NOT need originals. However, OIS reserves the right to request original documents. Make sure to retain copies of your AFCOE and all attached documents for your records before you submit it to the OIS.
4. VISA DOCS. To obtain an F-1 or J-1 visa, you must have the printed and signed I-20 or DS-2019 that we will send to your Fordham email address, as well as your financial documentation, and other forms required by the US Embassy/Consulate. You do not have to notarize your documents for submission to OIS, but the consulates may require this. You should check with the Post at which you will apply for your visa.
5. ENTRY INTO THE US. The printed and signed I-20 or DS-2019 is also needed for entry into the United States, along with your valid passport and valid F-1 / J-1 visa stamp.
6. TOURIST VISA. Do not enter the US as a tourist if you intend to be a student. That is, do not enter using the B-1/B-2 visa or the visa waiver program (WT). If you have a B-1/B-2 visa in your passport, make sure you show the F-1/J-1 visa to the immigration officer when you enter the US, so that your entry is properly recorded.
7. EMPLOYMENT. Be aware that when you are in the US as an F-1 or J-1 student you must pursue a full-time course of study and it is extremely difficult to be eligible for off-campus work permission during the first academic year. Employment is severely restricted for F-1 and J-1 students. Because of the numerous requirements students must meet to obtain employment authorization, employment cannot be a means of financial support for a degree program. Working without permission whether on or off campus can permanently jeopardize your legal stay in the U.S.
8. GRADUATE ASSISTANTSHIP. If you have a graduate assistantship, you must be in F-1 or J-1 student status to accept this if your GA is considered as employment. Certain other nonimmigrant classifications, including F-2 and H-4, do not allow any employment.
9. CANADIAN CITIZENS. Canadian citizens do not need a visa to enter the United States but must present an I-20 or DS-2019 and financial documents to the USCBP officer at the border or port of entry. Without an I-20 or DS-2019 and financial documentation, Canadians cannot enter the United States in F-1 or J-1 status.
10. I-20 NOTIFICATION. You will be notified via email when your I-20 is available for download/review. You must print and sign your I-20, bring it to your visa appointment, and present it to the US Immigration Officer at the port of entry.

All immigration related questions can be addressed to the Office for International Services at oisnewstudent@fordham.edu.

All academic and admissions-related questions can be addressed to the admissions office of your program.
