Students in the Fordham in Granada program take four to five courses taught in Spanish or English, depending on language proficiency. Courses in Art History, Business, Communications, International Studies, Literature, Music, Politics, Spanish, Psychology, Sociology, Economics, Health, Science, Computer Science, Math, History, and Culture are available. Students can also take advantage of for-credit internships.

Spanish Immersion Program (Summer)
This month-long program offers Spanish classes in language, literature, and culture. Students receive instruction at the University of Granada at their appropriate level of competency and will attend several events, cultural visits, and excursions throughout Andalusia.

“"I believe that study abroad was the best decision I’ve made while being at Fordham. Overall, it has taught me independence and strongly instilled an appreciation for culture, especially for that which is acutely dissimilar to my own.”

-Kristen Anastasio, London Liberal Arts

COST/FINANCIAL AID

Fordham in London, Fordham in Granada, exchange, and partner programs’ tuition is the same as per- term tuition in NY. Given the student’s continuing eligibility, all Fordham financial aid will be portable for these programs except room-specific aid, work-study, and Metro Grants. Tuition Remission, Tuition Exchange and FACHEX will continue for Fordham in London, Fordham in Granada, and exchange programs. Additional fees that cover the cost of housing, insurance, orientation, co-curricular activities, etc., will also be charged. Please visit fordham.edu/studyabroad for more information on specific program costs and scholarships for study abroad students.

"Aside from spending study time with my Spanish classmates at the Science Faculty, I attended weekly language exchanges (intercambios) at a hostel/restaurant. Through this weekly meet up I made many friends who I was able to hang out with and practice Spanish with at cafes and meet-ups outside of the intercambios."

-Samantha Brandt, Fordham in Granada
