2021-2022 Identity and Statement of Educational Purpose Form

Your 2021–2022 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was selected for review in a process called verification. Before awarding Federal Student Aid, we are required to verify your identity and collected a signed Statement of Educational Purpose.

You must appear in person at the Office of Enrollment Services to verify your identity by presenting a valid, government-issued photo identification (ID), such as, but not limited to, a driver’s license, other state-issued ID, or passport. The institution will maintain a copy of your photo ID that is annotated with the date it was received and the name of the official at the institution authorized to collect your ID.

In addition, you must sign in the presence of the Enrollment Services staff member. If you are unable to appear in person to verify your identity, you must provide the information on page 2 and sign in the presence of a notary. The original notarized copy of this document must be mailed to the Office of Student Financial Services. Faxes and scans are not acceptable.

Please complete in person at the Office of Enrollment Services:

Identity and Statement of Educational Purpose (To Be Signed at the Institution)

The student must appear in person at Fordham University to verify his or her identity by presenting an unexpired valid government-issued photo identification (ID), such as, but not limited to, a driver’s license, other state-issued ID, or passport. The institution will maintain a copy of the student’s photo ID that is annotated by the institution with the date it was received and reviewed, and the name of the official at the institution authorized to receive and review the student’s ID.

In addition, the student must sign, in the presence of the institutional official, the Statement of Educational Purpose provided below.
